James Melton Dies; Former ANA Member

James Melton

Tenor James Melton, 57, a numismatist and former member of the American Numismatic Association, died April 21 in the Roosevelt Hospital, New York.

He had been ill only a few days with lobar pneumonia.

Melton was a member of the A.N.A. from 1941 until about three years ago. He specialized in U.S. and foreign gold, but also collected U. S. silver.

At the time of his resignation from the A.N.A. he informed the organization he was turning his attention entirely to his antique autos.

Melton, whose gifted voice and warm personality made him one of the nation's most popular entertainers in the 1930s and 1940s, was known as an interested and enthused coin collector.

He also collected old classic autos; recently he sold what was once rated the most extensive private collection of vintage cars in the United States.

Melton's career extended through radio, motion picture musicals, concerts, the Metropolitan Opera and television.

For years Melton maintained a restaurant-museum in Connecticut.

JFK Official Mint Medal To Be Ready In Two Weeks

President Pleased As He Okays Design

President John Fitzgerald Kennedy's official presidential medal, to be struck at the Philadelphia Mint, will be ready for over-the-counter sale there in two weeks.

Gilroy Roberts, chief engraver of the United States Mint, said on April 24 from his Philadelphia office that work was 80 per cent completed on the traditional medal for the nation's 35th chief executive.

Roberts' work on the Kennedy medal marks the fourth time he has designed for a presidential Mint series. He said he had the privilege of taking the medal drawing to President Kennedy's office recently for his inspection. "He was pleased, and all those in the office seemed to be pleased," the chief engraver said.

Roberts designed the obverse of the medal; his assistant, Frank Gasparro, executed the reverse.

Coin World readers will not want to miss the first of a series, "How Our Coins Are Made" by Gilroy Roberts, chief engraver of the United States Mint, adopted from an illustrated talk he gave at the American Numismatic Society recently. Engraver Roberts is currently editing the material for technical correctness.

The same engraving team of Roberts-Gasparro worked on the first presidential medal for Dwight D. Eisenhower. Roberts' artistry appears on the second Eisenhower medal and a medal for Harry S. Truman.

Former President Eisenhower was not a medal enthusiast, Roberts said recently in New York at a speech he gave at the American Numismatic Society.

"The president (Eisenhower) had been photographed and his pictures were painted so many times . . ." Roberts theorized, "that (he) was not interested in medals."

"In fact," the engraver told A.N.S. listeners, "they (the Eisenhower administration) wanted to use an inaugural medal that was issued by the Inaugural Committee which is a different thing."

Canadian Mint Sets Get Pliofilm Pouch

Canada's 1961 proof-like mint sets will be packaged in a pliofilm pouch for the first time in history. The encasement is similar to that used for the United States proof and mint sets issued by the Philadelphia Mint and the Treasury Department. Photograph of the innovation was furnished by J. E. Charlton, of Toronto.

Spurious Dime Racket May Be Ended By Arrest

A wave of phony 1916-D dimes was believed halted in the Midwest with the Nebraska arrest Thursday, April 20, of a Mission, Kansas, traveling salesman with a trunkful of coins.

Allegedly leaving a trail of altered date dimes in Oklahoma, Nebraska and Missouri, the salesman is in jail in Ardmore, Okla., on a charge of larceny by fraud.

Arrested in Nebraska after fast action by an Omaha coin dealer, Ed Gorelick, the salesman was identified as Robert L. Richardson, 35, Mission, Kansas, employed by the Regal Aluminum Company, Kansas City, Mo.

Waiving extradition from Nebraska, Richardson was taken to Ardmore on a warrant arising out of the sale of an alleged phony 1916-D dime to a coin collector there, Mrs. Ray Graybill.

Officers are investigating the possibility that Richardson is connected with the appearance of several 1916-D altered date dimes in St. Joseph, Mo.

Officials Take Soviet Hoard

In Russia it isn't "finder's keepers" when a cache of money is discovered by a citizen. The hoard must be handed over to the government.

An excavating machine operator named Nikolai Petrovich Vlasov recently turned up an earthenware vessel while digging a trench near the new "house of culture" in Istra, northwest of Moscow. The vessel contained 1,466 copper coins of two-, four-, and five-kopek value dated between 1758 and 1811.

The coin hoard, which weighed 132 pounds, was given to the Moscow Province Museum of Local Lore. Museum personnel say the coins are "of great scientific value" to archaeologists and numismatists.

Coins Found In Italy

Italy has its coin finds, too. About 300 gold or bronze coins dating from the 16th and 17th centuries were found in early April in gravel on the bank of the river Adda, near Sondrio.

Nineteen Seek Jobs On A.N.A. Board

Nineteen aspirants to the American Numismatic Association's Board of Governors have declared themselves candidates as of April 25 with 50 days still remaining before the nomination deadline. Five are to be elected.

Competition for the Board of Governors' seats will be the liveliest of the election for 1961-1963 A.N.A. officials. Only other contest at the present will be for the office of treasurer.

Harold R. Klein, Hinsdale, Ill., who now holds the office of treasurer, is seeking re-election; he is opposed by Eldridge Jones, Washington, D. C.

C. C. Shroyer, Fremont, Ohio, has been nominated for the office of president; P. K. Anderson, Gotebo, Okla., for first vice president; Herbert M. Bergen, Fullerton, Calif., second vice president; Lewis M. Reagan, Wichita, Kansas, for general secretary.

Board of governor candidates include Harold H. Berk, Warren, Ohio; Dr. Conway Bolt, Marshville, N. C.; Karl M. Brainard, Los Angeles, Calif.; Kenneth D. Espenschied, Dover, Ohio; Charles M. Johnson, Long Beach, Calif.

Raymond Gallo, New York City; Ray O. Lefman, Kansas City, Mo.; Louis E. Zumwalt, Lakewood, Calif.; Vernon Oblisk, Bradenton, Fla.; Robert G. McArthur, Oakland, Calif.

John J. Pittman, Rochester, N. Y.; Matt H. Rothert, Camden, Ark.; Arthur Sipe, Drexel

Hill, Pa.; Elmer G. Nelson, Lincoln, Neb.; E. Ward Russell, Silver Spring, Md.; Ben Stocker, Detroit.

Leo Terry, Indianapolis; Earl G. Whitehead, Los Angeles, Calif.; William N. Worth, Portland, Oregon.

Of this group, McArthur, Pittman and Sipe are seeking to be renamed to the Board.

Shroyer currently serves as first vice president of the organization; Rothert is second vice president, and Lewis M. Reagan is general secretary.

Rear Admiral O. H. Dodson, USN (Ret.), director of the Money Museum, National Bank of Detroit, is retiring as president of the A.N.A.

Nominations can be made before June 15 by any member of the A.N.A. including affiliated clubs. Any members in good standing (excluding corporate, junior and honorary members) are eligible for elective offices with the exception of candidates for president and first vice president.

These two officials must have had experience by serving on the Board of Governors or as the general secretary.

Nominations are to be sent to the office of Lewis M. Reagan, Box 577, Wichita, Kansas. The nominee will receive official notice of his nomination.

Richardson Arrested

reward for the arrest and conviction of the person who sold the dime to Mrs. Graybill.

Richardson was reported to have sold a "1916-D" dime to Ed Gorelick at his store, Simon's Jewelry, in Omaha, on Wednesday, April 19. Gorelick described the salesman as nervous and a fast talker; but he mentioned the hotel in which he was staying as in Omaha.

After Richardson left his store, Gorelick examined the 1916-D closer and said he discovered the mintmark "D" had been glued on.

Gorelick called the Omaha police, but they reportedly refused to place Richardson under arrest since no Nebraska laws had been broken.

Calling Coin World to describe

Richardson, Gorelick was told the description matched that of the man wanted in Oklahoma on the same complaint, selling spurious 1916-D dimes.

Gorelick was instructed by Editor Dick Johnson to contact Wilson Walters of the Retail Coin Dealers Association. He was also informed of probable charges in Ardmore. After a telephone call to confirm the Ardmore warrant, Gorelick notified Omaha police. They picked up Richardson at his hotel.

Shortly before the arrest, Omaha police sergeant Gordon Janing said Richardson had reportedly returned the purchase price of the coin, $45, to Gorelick.

"It doesn't look like my coin, but here is your money back," Richardson reportedly told Gorelick.

Taken to Omaha police headquarters, Richardson was found to have a trunkful of coins which he said were valued at $4,000. The collection contained $20 and $50 gold coins and complete sets of Lincoln cents and Mercury dimes.

On Friday, April 21, Ardmore deputy John Smithers took Richardson to Oklahoma after Richardson waived extradition.

Arriving in Ardmore, Richardson was placed on $2,000 bond. He failed to raise this with a local bondsman, and was placed in the Ardmore jail.

Mrs. Graybill said Richardson came to her home March 30. "He told me that he would like to show me some coins that he had for sale," she said.

"I asked him to come in," she related, "and from the beginning he acted very strangely—of course—more so in retrospect."

A transaction resulted where Mrs. Graybill traded an about good dime for the "extra fine" 1916-D Richardson had, plus $80.

"As I only had $30 in the house I started to write him a check and he told me that he could not accept a check," said the Ardmore collector.

"I went to a drug store and cashed a $50 check and gave him the cash," she continued. "As soon as I had given him the money, I asked him for some sort of identification and he told me that he had none and left immediately."

Richardson used the name "Sloan" with Mrs. Graybill. She later found, through one of the members in their coin club, that a man of his description had called on a local lumber yard as a salesman.

The salesman was identified as Richardson.

A coin expert, Ossian Cameron, examined the 1916-D dime in Mrs. Graybill's possession and lifted the D off of the coin with his fingernail.

When questioned in Ardmore police station, Richardson admitted he purchased three or four 1916-D

Coins From Dental Metal Costs Soviet

Counterfeiting, it appears, is not a lost art in Russia.

Despite Communist propaganda that crime is almost unknown to the "new Soviet man," the fact remains that an occasional Russian citizen tries to make a dishonest ruble.

Take, for example, the case of V. Barantsev, who was caught red-handed practicing his avocation as a "fal'shivometchik." The newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya describes the crime as follows:

"In counting up her day's receipts a saleswoman at Abdolino in Orenburg Province found a spurious 50-kopek coin. She reported the fact to the militia without delay.

"The next day, a customer gave exactly the same kind of coin to a saleswoman at Store No. 34. Then several more spurious coins were found. The same man—dental technician V. Barantsev—had 'paid' his bill with these coins.

"The militia arrested the criminal. It turned out that he made plaster molds and cast counterfeit 20-kopek and 50-kopek coins out of metal which was supposed to be used for false teeth. (Metal false teeth are quite common in Russia.)

"The Orenburg provincial court sentenced V. Barantsev to 12 years' deprivation of liberty."

As is often the case with Russia crime stories, the Sovetskaya Rossiya report was captioned simply "From The Courts."

The Soviet press rarely publishes news of a crime until the criminal has been apprehended, tried and sentenced.

Florida Group To Meet In Bank Lounge

A coin club is being organized in Seminole County, Fla., because of increasing interest in numismatics, in the area, according to its instigator, Arthur Rhodes. First session was held in April at the First Federal Bank lounge in Sanford.

Sceat English Coin

A sceat is a small Anglo-Saxon coin which was used in England from 600 to 750.

dimes from a man in Neosho, Mo., who claimed they were genuine. These dimes were supposed to have come from Tennessee, according to Richardson's story.

One of the alleged 1916-D altered date dimes was reportedly in a set of dimes, one allegedly sold to Mrs. Graybill, one was in Richardson's pocket change—the one returned from Gorelick.

Richardson could not account for the other 1916-D dime.

At the time of his Ardmore arrest Richardson was out on $2,000 bond for a breaking and entering charge previously issued in Marion, Kansas.

Ardmore Sheriff Gerald Cobb was in a quandry by the altered date dime. "We can't tell if the dime was remolded, or if the D was glued onto it," he said.

"It was very tedious work for whoever did it."

Wilson Walters of the Retail Coin Dealers' Association said he believes this is a big financed operation. He pointed out that already $2,000 in bond had been paid in Kansas for Richardson with two more pending in Ardmore and possibly St. Joseph.

As an officer in Retail Coin Dealers Association he recommended to Mrs. Graybill to press charges so Richardson would be tried.

The Association paid the extradition costs of bringing Richardson from Omaha to Oklahoma.

Walters said he had received calls from Arkansas and Texas reporting incidents that possibly might involve Richardson. The calls came as a result of a printed description in the April 20 issue of Coin World.

It was theorized by one authority that this case has no connection with the number of spurious 1916-D dimes that turned up in Los Angeles reported by Walter Breen, at the Southern California convention, March 3-5.

cut which was a mecca for old car hobbyists.

His voice was supplemented by his curly-haired 6-foot-3 good looks and a glowing personality that was never marred by fits of temperament. Critics and the public found him invariably warm and approachable.

His radio shows which first brought him fame included "The Ford Sunday Hour," "The Telephone Hour," "The Texaco Star Theater" and "The Harvest of Stars."

A native of Moultrie, Ga., Melton got his musical start playing the saxophone in the University of Florida band. He later studied voice at Vanderbilt University.

In his early days his goal had been the Metropolitan Opera. Because of a dependent family he was forced to postpone that ambition until he had won financial security as a popular singer.

But in 1937 an associate recalled, "he turned his living room into an opera stage." He practiced the great operas by the hour. In the next few years he filled engagements with various civic opera companies to gain experience.

And, in 1942, he achieved his ambition—singing as a top tenor with the Metropolitan Opera for the next two seasons.

Heirloom Celestons Newest Mangan Item

James T. Mangan, premier of Celestia, today announced he has decided to release a small number of heirloom sets of the famous gold celestons.

These coins were minted in 1959, 1960 and 1961, as family heirlooms—they have the same design and size as the mint and proof gold celestons of coin gold .900 fine—but they are minted in solid 24-K gold of .999 plus fineness, according to the outer space specialist.

Mangan pointed out that few coins in history have ever been minted in 24-K pure gold (there is no gold of purer quality than 24-K) because alloys were needed to add strength and firmness to the natural gold for circulation purposes. Alloys in standard gold coins of the past have been five per cent silver and five per cent copper or 10 per cent copper. Every alloy changes the gold color slightly.

"These heirloom celestons, pure gold without alloy, will show collectors the true, mouth-wattering color of gold in its completely refined state, and thus be prized curiosities in any gold collection" said Mangan.

Weight of the heirloom celestons, in each year, 1959, 1960 and 1961 is approximately 38 grains.

Over 200 At Club Meeting

The 398th meeting of the Los Angeles, Calif., Coin Club, self-styled "the world's largest coin club", is scheduled for Friday, May 5, to be held at Forester's Hall, 1329 South Hope street, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the April meeting, 237 members and guests attended, according to a report from the corresponding secretary. Six new members were accepted, making a total of 32 since the January session.

The club encourages coin exhibits by members, and each display owner is given a blue ribbon inscribed "Display Award, Los Angeles Coin Club". One display each month receives a $5 prize, with secretary Elizabeth Goodson repeating at the last two meetings.

Indiana Show To Be At Fairground

The Clinton County Coin Club of Frankfort, Ind., less than a year old, has scheduled its first Coin and Stamp Show, bourse and auction, for June 24 and 25, to be held at the County Fairground in Clinton Hall at Frankfort.

Exhibits will be featured at the Show, with awards. For the auction, to be held in two sessions, Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 3:30, consignments are wanted, according to club officers.

Bourse space will be limited, and tables are being offered on a first come first served basis. Reservations for bourse space and details regarding exhibits and auction material may be obtained from the club president, Miller Easterly Jr., 452 West Green Street, Frankfort.

Mobile Issues Second Medal

The second in the series of Commemorative souvenir coins to be issued by the city of Mobile, Ala., has been released and promises to last about as long as the first, which was not long, according to committee chairman Bill Greiner.

This series started with Bienville, with the second honoring Iberville, co-founders of Mobile which is celebrating its 250th anniversary.

Others in the series of at least four coins are expected to be distributed prior to the week of June 11-17, which will be the high mark of year-long anniversary activities.

All the coins in the series are worth 50 cents in trade in Mobile, or may be redeemed at any city bank by June 6 of this year. The first issue was released about six weeks ago, and has practically disappeared.

New Florida Club

A new coin club has been organized in Mulberry, Fla. It was formed by Mulberry residents who were also members of the Winter Haven Coin Club formed last February by assistant recreation director Don Henry.

Texan Has Freak Proof Set

Joe M. Hefner, Lubbock, Texas, numismatist, was checking some of his proof sets he had received from the Mint during the past several years, but had never opened. To his surprise a 1956 set had two dimes and no cent. Hefner said he had heard of only one other like set.

Kennedy's Official Medal...

as you know, from our Mint series."

Robert said it was eight months or more when he was finally given authorization to proceed with the striking of the medal for President Eisenhower.

(The Inaugural Committee for President Kennedy authorized the Medallic Art Co. of New York to strike the 1961 official Inaugural Medal with the Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., as its sole distributor. This is not to be confused with the Mint medal which follows somewhat later after the inauguration.)

"There is no set date for the striking of presidential medals, however," Engraver Roberts said.

The Kennedy Mint medal in bronze will conform with specifications of the previous presidential pieces—it will cost $3, and will measure three inches in diameter. A limited number of the medals will be struck in silver upon special order, the engraver said.

It is unwritten law that the presidential Mint medals are never resold at a profit. They are ordered from Mrs. Rae V. Bieste, Superintendent, United States Mint, Philadelphia 30, Pa.

Only money orders, certified personal checks, express or bank money orders or bank cashier's checks will be accepted.

Other presidential medals available include the following (the engraver's name follows that of the president):

Andrew Johnson, Paquet; Ulysses S. Grant, W. Barber; Rutherford B. Hayes, Morgan; James A. Garfield, Chester A. Arthur, C. Barber and Morgan; Grover Cleveland, C. Barber; Benjamin

Harrison, William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, C. Barber and Morgan; Woodrow Wilson, Warren G. Harding, Morgan.

Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin S. Truman, Sinnock and Roberts; Dwight D. Eisenhower, first term, Roberts and Gasparro; Dwight D. Eisenhower, second term, Roberts and von Hebel.

Engraver Roberts, who has been chief sculptor and engraver for the United States Mint in Philadelphia since 1948, will go down in history for his work on presidential medals and for many other accomplishments in the field of medallic art and sculpturing.

When he returned to Philadelphia from Washington in 1948, he was returning to his home town!

He was born in the City of Brotherly Love, March 11, 1905. He studied at the Corcoran Art School in Washington.

He had previously served as understudy assistant to the chief engraver at the Philadelphia Mint from 1936 to 1938, so he was going home twice in a manner of speaking.

For 10 years, from 1938 to 1948, Roberts worked with the picture engraving division of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington.

Here he was occupied with portraits for postage and revenue stamps. He is also noted for his numerous portrait medals and plaques for societies, institutions, individuals and industrial concerns.

These included the founder's medal for the Drexel Institute in 1936, the Powell Philadelphia Award medal of 1948, the Theodore Roosevelt High School plaque in 1951 as well as various Congressional gold medals.

He was the recipient of the gold medal and citation at the International Exhibit of Medals in Madrid, Spain, in 1951.

He is a member of the Franklin Institute, the National Sculpture Society, the Rittenhouse Astronomy Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts live in Upper Darby, Pa. She was the former Lillian Sharples Pancoast. They have one son, John T. Roberts.

Auto Store Stocks Coins

"What kind of seat covers can I get for this 1909-S VDB cent?"

This is common conversation at the Big Wheel Auto Stores of Minneapolis since S. S. Mack, president of the Big Wheel, and well known collector and coin dealer, announced the opening of "Coins Unlimited."

This will be a coin sale division of the firm, according to Mack, who said the coins are displayed in a rotating show case on the sales floor of the store.

Customers are encouraged to trade their rare and valuable coins for auto supplies. Coins are also bought and sold in this division.

Show Date June 11

The Marion-Gas City Coin Club of Marion, Ind., has scheduled a coin show for June 11, to be held in the Honeywell Memorial building at Wabash, Ind. It will be an all-day affair, according to show chairman Glenn Jack David, 220 West Massey, Marion.

Mrs. Lauretta Hansan, 50, wife of John H. Hansan, operator of Hansan's Coin Shop, Kansas City, Mo., was fatally burned at their home when she apparently fell asleep while smoking.

William D. Hansan, 16, their son, who found his mother, had left the house two hours earlier.

A passer-by saw the smoke and sounded the alarm. Fire damage was confined to one corner of the living room; loss was estimated at $300.

Two daughters, Mrs. Jean Farkas, Waynesville, Mo., and Mrs. Marie Haynes, Chicago, and another son, John E. Hansan, Cincinnati, survive with three sisters and nine grandchildren.

Civil War Coins Good Until May 20

Saturday, May 20, is the deadline for redemption of commemorative coins being issued by the Muscle Shoals, Ala., Civil War Centennial Commission.

These coins are being distributed by merchants and others who apply, in Florence, Sheffield and Tusculumbia, Ala.

Slightly larger than a 50-cent coin, these commemoratives are bronze plated, and have on their obverse a replica of the Confederate half dollar.

On the reverse is inscribed "Muscle Shoals Civil War Centennial Commemoration", and the statement "good for 50 cents in cash or trade until May 20, 1961".

Responsible for the commemorative coins is Dr. Milton C. Dunn, chairman of the relics and display committee of the Colbert-Lauderdale Civil War Centennial Commemoration sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Historical Society.

Bourse Sell-Out At Blue Ridge

The allotment of 35 bourse tables for the second annual Convention of the Blue Ridge Numismatic Association, scheduled for Clemson, S. C., next August 11-13, have already been sold, according to Association secretary G. C. Sizemore of Greenville, S. C.

Also announced was the selection as auctioneer of Earle T. Myer of Tampa, Fla., who will conduct a floor and mail bid sale of more than 600 unrestricted lots, which will be split up over the three days of the Convention.

Some 5,000 visitors are anticipated for this year's show, Sizemore said.

Richardson: No Sympathy

We have no sympathy for Robert L. Richardson, who is in jail in Ardmore, Oklahoma. He was arrested in Omaha, Nebraska, for allegedly selling a 1916-D altered date dime, but without difficulty in securing his arrest.

Dick Johnson need for the bill to prohibit the alteration of dates and mint marks.

Just such a bill is in Congress now. Introduced recently by Congressman Kenneth Gray (Democrat, Illinois), the bill is being studied by the Treasury Department.

If H.R. 3659 gets the Treasury green light, which we certainly hope that it will, then it will go before the Senate and House to be voted upon.

We strongly urge the Treasury Officials to okay this bill for Congressional action.

We must commend the Retail Coin Dealers Association for their quick action in this case. Secretary Wilson Walters moved rapidly when Ardmore coin collector Mrs. Ray Graybill made the first complaint to him.

He moved fast and backed up his intentions with money—paying the extradition costs of Richardson from Nebraska to Oklahoma.

Richardson created his own undoing. If tried and convicted, we hope this will be an example to others who are altering dates to foil American collectors.

Last Call For Europe

The "last call" is being issued by Hans Schulman for the coin tour to Europe. If you are undecided to go, re-examine your fall schedules, then plan to join in the fun. Most urgent of all, however, you must register your intentions with Hans immediately.

The tour offers 25 days of numismatic enjoyment at less cost than an individually planned vacation. Two conventions, and many cities with visits to dealers' shops and museums are on the itinerary!

Best of all will be the fellowship of a plane load of numismatists!

There are six separate plans to fit almost everyone—so whether you wish the full tour, or to fly over and back with the group, you have the opportunity.

Write, wire, or phone Hans Schulman today. Let him know you are planning on going. (His address: 545 Fifth Avenue, New York City; phone: MUrray Hill 6-3145.)

"Last call!"

A.N.A. Competition

Nineteen numismatists have been nominated for the A.N.A. board of governors. Only five can serve. This competition shows a very healthy situation.

The board serves as a stepping stone to the higher positions of vice presidents and president. While it is not a prerequisite to serve first on the board before becoming an officer, it has, by custom, tended to be this way.

We like to see this many people take an active interest in A.N.A. management. Watch Coin World in the issues between now and the election in August, we plan to bring you a picture and a little of the background of each candidate. We have offered to each nominee to let him say "his piece" in Coin World, giving him a chance to publicize his platform.

Letters To The Editor

Can't let the item pass concerning "Gas Station" doubles as a "Coin Shop" in Florida. My husband has a coin shop in our gas station and grocery store for five years. He has a good collection, sells the Library of Coins and "The Guide Book of United States Coins" and others.

Mrs. C. W. Billings
Santa Maria, Calif.

Congratulations on your birthday! You have established an enviable record. I appreciate your placing of my display ads. They show up well. I don't have a kick or squawk of any kind. You and your staff have been doing a great job.

Louis Bell
Decatur, Ala.

Saw the article on the 1864 Indian cent with the recut 1 and 8. I have one of these and also a two cent (1864) piece with both the obverse and the reverse right side up instead of being opposite.

Last but not least I have a 1926 Buffalo in what I believe to be a matte proof silver, also an 1883 / 2 shield 5 cent which, the last I knew, were only a few. I thought this might be of interest to you and your readers and I would like to know the value.

William Brown
La Porte, Ind.

Hey! Why the increase in the minimum ad price? Don't you know you are cutting out us small guys who don't have enough to sell or trade to pay for a $2 ad? These costs will have to be figured in the costs of the coins and we can do less business at the higher price.

Please! Let's lower that price back down to earth.

Otherwise, you have the best coin publication I've ever seen.

James W. Hill
Emporia, Kansas.

I was disappointed that you allowed Coin World, by printing the ad on page 52 of the April 13 issue, to be a party to the distribution of counterfeit coins. Instead of encouraging people who make "exact reproductions" of classic coins, we should do everything in our power to discourage it. This ad says of the counterfeit Spanish cobs that "these reproductions are extraordinarily authentic and contain the same silver content as the originals, which they duplicate in every way. Even some experts cannot tell the difference."

Numismatics is going to be ruined by counterfeiters. The fact that, originally, they are not misrepresented, in no way alters the danger. This Spanish cob business is not the only instance. On all sides we are surfeited with offerings of "Reproductions." What, pray tell, are the "California gold tokens"? Everything of value is being counterfeited and copied. Recently there have been offerings of rare Hawaiian tokens—is, copies of them.

I believe we should do everything in our power to stop the counterfeiting of valuable items of numismatic interest. Coin World could help by refusing offerings of such items.

In any event, I intend to bring the matter up at the Atlanta Convention of the American Numismatic Association.

John M. Coffee Jr.
Editor, The Fare Box
Boston, Mass.

To me Coin World is a weekly story of what is happening to other collectors, their finds, discoveries of interest. To me the amazing success of Coin World is no surprise because of the policy of the editors and advertising managers.

For instance, I am a charter member of Coin World, and I have yet to see one of those preposterous and ridiculous ads concerning some coins such as the 1913 Liberty head nickel.....my best wishes for your certain continued success.....

Charles Johnson
Frankfort, Ky.

I want my friend (Russell M. McLaughlin) to get the best and most interesting coin paper ever printed—Coin World. Enclosed is a money order for a year's subscription—please see that he gets his copy as soon as possible. I wish you success with your fine paper.

C. N. Lakosky
Hot Springs, Ark.

I really think that your newspaper is the best numismatic publication ever because of its many special features. The section I enjoy the most is your editorial. It is really a pleasure to receive the latest Coin World and start reading it and find all the latest news of the numismatic world.

I subscribe to other numismatic publications, and.....I still think Coin World is the best.

I also think that your personal article on Elizabeth Rudel Smith is a real service to the numismatic public.

Scott Wainwright
Chatham, N. J.

I am a satisfied subscriber to Coin World and I think you have the best in the business. I am a member of the Honolulu Coin Club in Hawaii. I receive my paper some two weeks late but enjoy it just the same.

Referring to an article you wrote a while back about allowing the dealer plenty of time for delivery, I believe that 62 days is allowing a little too much time, don't you. I will say that I enjoy my paper very much. Keep up the good work.

Robert E. England
Fleet Post Office
San Francisco, Calif.

I've been collecting coins for a good many years and up until a few years back an ordinary fellow like myself could go to the Federal Reserve bank and get new coins. But suddenly they stopped this. I was thinking if all the coin collectors would write to their congressmen instructing the Federal Reserve banks to give out coins to any ordinary Joe, we would be much happier.....

Hobson Arnold
Atlanta, Ga.

Here is $5 for a two-year subscription.....after reading several borrowed copies of the newspaper I am convinced that you publish the best coin magazine on the market. Keep up the excellent work.

Tom Evans
Tipp City, Ohio

Will you please mail me one clipping each of my want ads—my tax man asked that I keep a file of these for future reference..

Reason I didn't: Some very clever and discriminating thief "lifted" my copy before I could finish reading it!

Wallace Davis
Houston, Texas

I note in the last issue that you have raised display advertising rates again. I can't understand why a paper is always so anxious to raise its rates just when it's getting going strong. I quit advertising in another publication because its rates got too high. Now it seems the same thing will happen to Coin World. If I have to sacrifice most of my profits to the ad, I might just as well keep my coins.

Harold Garrett
Sedalia, Mo.

The response to my recent ad in your publication was absolutely tremendous. I have never seen such outstanding response to a relatively inexpensive display ad.

Mel Lipson
Boston, Mass.

I belong to a coin club made up of grammar school students and I know I speak for the rest of the members when I say I know this is the most enjoyable numismatic paper we have ever read. Thanks for a really fine newspaper. Enclosed you will find a year's subscription.

Swedish Report

Coin Commemorates 500th Anniversary Of Parliament

By Axel Miltander
Bevaringsgatan 11
Gothenburg N. Sweden

Recently I wrote in Coin World about the Swedish commemorative Delaware coin. Today I plan to tell about another, the Yeoman No. 60. It is interesting of two reasons. It is the first Swedish coin in the denomination of five crowns (dollar size) and it was minted commemorating an important event in the Swedish history: The 500th anniversary of the Swedish parliament. This parliament is—as you can see—one of the oldest in the world.

Already in 1359 representatives for the Swedish people were called to a meeting, but it is not known if this meeting was realized. First in 1435 Engelbrekt called the representatives to the first "regular" Swedish parliament. At the same time he was elected as rikshövitsman (president) for the Swedish people.

The Swedish parliament today consists of 381 members from all the political groups. The biggest one of the political parties is the Social Democrats (as Democrats in U.S.A.). The Conservative (Republicans) can be found in three different parties: the Conservative, the Liberal and the Center parties. Beside them we have a minor group of Communists, but they are very few. The Social Democrats have been in majority since early in 1930's.

When I read about "coin-holders" in an ad in Coin World recently, I thought about the old celluloid-holders for stamps. They were round and a stamp was fitted into each of them. These round pieces have been used as coins in several countries, for instance in France and Denmark. The holders were invented in France in 1920, when stamps began to be used as coins.

The idea was imported to Denmark; there they also did not have metal enough to mint coins. A private firm received the privileges to make the holders, and in total 475,000 pieces were made for the 25-ore stamps and 467,000 for stamps in the denomination of 10 ore.

On the reverse of these uncommon coins, these celluloid-coins you also could find advertisements, for instance for tobacco: Capstan, Melba, Flag, Star and so on.

I have letters from Coin World readers who ask me if tokens have been minted in Scandinavia and if I collect them. Tokens have been minted, indeed, but I do not have much of interest for them. We have transportation tokens, tokens for amusement parks, and even in washing-machines. Yes, my wife buys a token for nine cents and puts it into a machine each time it is used. Tokens have been—or are in use—on ferries, trams, trains—it must be impossible to know how many types there are of them. They are not collected by many here and cheap—except for old pieces.

On the other hand: Interest for medals is so much higher and growing up. I think it depends upon the fact that medals are still not so expensive to buy. They also give you historical knowledge and they are often masterpieces in good art, made by really good engravers.

When you collect medals you will find how necessary it is for you to have good literature. Recently I bought two books, written by Bror Emil Hildebrand and printed in 1874 and 1875. They have together more than 1,200 pages and give full description of all royal medals etc. from about 1500 to 1875. Even if you cannot find any illustration in these old books the descriptions are so good so all medals can be located.

I read in a paper that you have 12 million stamp collectors and three millions of coin-collectors in U.S.A. In other word, 80 and 20 per cent each. I made an "Gallup" here, asked the readers of our paper and the result was 82 per cent philatelists and 18 per cent numismatist. So the situation would be the same here as in U.S.A. The numismatists were interested in old Swedish coins in first hand, gold coins in the second one.

Alton Group Forms

An organization of coin collectors in the Alton, Ill., area, was held recently at the Hayner City library. Acting president is John Walker, and interested collectors are invited to contact him regarding meetings.

Mint Marks Different

Small and large "S" Mint marks varieties can be found on many dates of the Mercury dime.

Meyer Named Head Of Club

The Fort Walton, Fla., Coin Club, started through the interest and activity of Eglin Air Force Base personnel, has become formally organized and its members have elected Sgt. Jack Meyer its first president.

Other officers include senior Master Sergeant Martin Crusse, vice president, and Mrs. Bille Hilton, secretary-treasurer.

At present, the club has no permanent meeting place on date but these matters are being worked on. Any interested collectors are invited to contact Crusse at 520 Cherokee Drive, Capehart, Eglin AFB, or phone Eglin Extension 60-2548.

First activity of the Fort Walton club was to work with the Eglin AFB collectors in putting on a Coin Show on April 22, as part of National Coin Week.

A.N.A. Vice President To Address Toledo Club

C. C. Shroyer, of Fremont, Ohio, first vice president of the American Numismatic Association, was scheduled to be the speaker at the next meeting of the Glass Center Coin Club of Toledo, Ohio, slated to be held at the V.F.W. post 606, 1901 Tremainsville Road, Toledo, starting at 7:30 p.m., on Wednesday, May 3.

The location is a change from the club's earlier meeting place, the West Toledo Y.M.C.A., although it is a move of only a few blocks, on the same street.

The Toledo club, organized in 1961, has now reached a stage of interest, activity and membership that two monthly meetings are scheduled, a third Wednesday of the month session now being held.

The second meeting is expected to be a social "swap and gab" session, featuring a different type of coin each month and continuing until every denomination has been emphasized.

By Rehberg has been appointed assistant auctioneer and club coin advisor, because of his almost 30 years of collecting experience. Other changes in the club include the addition of pin-on name tags which will specify the type of coin specialization of the member.

Coin Week Report Planned

Reports on National Coin Week displays were slated to be on the program of the May meeting of the Redwood Empire Coin Club of Santa Rosa, Calif., scheduled for El Rancho on Monday evening, May 1, at 8 o'clock, according to a report from secretary Guy Chapman.

Six exhibits were planned for prominent business places on the major streets, with the main display set for the Book and Bible House. Gold coins and pioneer gold were to be displayed at jewelry stores.

The club planned to have members present at the exhibits to answer questions, and to create interest in the Redwood Empire organization.

At the last meeting of the club, the annual dinner took place, at no charge to the members as a gift from the club. No formal speeches were made, but each member had a turn to make "remarks". The Santa Rosa club was founded in May, 1949, and is one of the older organizations in California.

Clubs Plan Joint Meet

The Lindsay Coin Club, Lindsay, Calif., is planning a joint meeting with the Visalia Coin Club and the Hanford Coin Club in the near future, according to J. O. Nations, secretary-treasurer of the club.

Guy Stiles was named president of the club at its last meeting; O. F. Long, Porterville, Calif., is vice president; J. O. Nations was elected for his fourth term as secretary-treasurer.

Auctioneers are Jack L. Schwarz and Frederick O. Peterson, both of Visalia, Calif. James Wade is in charge of refreshments.

In addition to the election, Ronnie Carr of Tulare, Calif., spoke at the last meeting, and gave a report of the Los Angeles convention.

English Group To Hear Deacon

J. H. Deacon is scheduled to give a talk on "Highlights in Australian Numismatic History" at the next meeting of the Kent, England, Numismatic Society, to be held in Maidstone Museum, on Friday, May 12.

At the April session, G. C. Haines spoke on "Coinage of the Roman Empire, 161-274 A. D." For the June 9 meeting, an exhibition and short talks are scheduled.

The Kent Society is one of the older British numismatic organizations, having been founded in 1913.

No Tribulations For Neuce

Public Demand Causes Column To Run Daily

By Ed O. Neuce

Coin World has requested this writer to contribute a story on the "Trials and Tribulations" of the only daily coin columnist in the country, but the story will necessarily be of the writer's "Trials" because, so far, I have encountered no "Tribulations" in writing of my first love... numismatics.

Having been a collector, in a minor way, for many years, I was not at all surprised at the tremendous welcome of readers to Ed's Coiner, which appears daily in the Morgantown, West Virginia, Dominion-News.

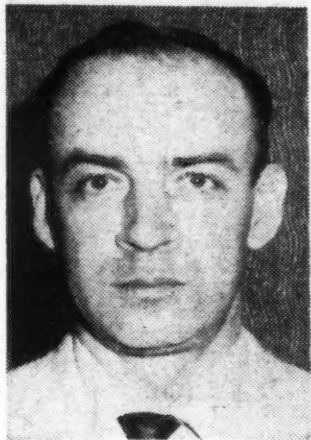

As a news reporter for The Dominion-News, I first began my column as a weekly feature in our magazine section on Saturdays. After only a few issues, we here at the D-N could see that once-a-week for the column would not work.

Letters started pouring in from everywhere, requesting information on coins in the readers' possession. In order to meet the demand, it was necessary for Ed's Coiner to go into daily production.

Soon after the origination of Ed's Coiner, our editorial office was also flooded with letters from established collectors who wanted to form a coin club, but did not know how to go about it.

Ed's Coiner is proud of the fact that it was instrumental in the formation of the Mountaineer Coin Club here in Monongalia County. This club held its first meeting last month with an attendance of more than 40 interested persons.

This is the second coin club that it has been my pleasure to organize. The other is the Northern

Ed O. Neuce

Virginia Numismatic Society of Front Royal, Virginia, which I "kicked-off" through a series of articles while associated as a reporter for the Northern Virginia Daily in that state.

I began this story by saying that it involved "no tribulations." I will have to retract that statement, because I have missed out on the purchase of several valuable coins, due to the fact that I did not feel, and do not feel, that I should take advantage of my position in purchasing coins from an unsuspecting public.

The majority of letters received at Ed's Coiner are from older persons. Most have coins, or currency, that have been in the family for several years. I find, especially among the female readers, that they want to sell their coins, and most offer the coins and currency at what ever I think is a fair price.

It has been my policy, and it shall continue to be my policy, to contact these people by letter and request that I be permitted to print their letters, listing what they have for sale, and giving their names and addresses to any collector that could prove to me that he was not out to beat the unsuspecting person out of his, or her coins.

In this respect, I sadly report that several persons have contacted Ed's Coiner for the names of possible sellers with the intention of picking coins up for resale purposes. I do not give any information to these persons.

If the person who wants to sell, does not receive any contacts within a short time, I refer them to a reputable dealer, the names of whom I find in Coin World or the Numismatist.

In no case do I buy the coins, although some are what one might be called "steals."

At the present time, a reader of Ed's Coiner has a 1909-SVDB Lincoln cent which he has offered me for $25. This coin is in extra fine condition, showing very little wear, and is certainly worth two times this amount. He also has several other coins, including several gold pieces, that I could buy for a fraction of their value.

I have referred this particular man to a dealer, because I feel that he should receive at least the guide book price for his coins. The dealer in this case is known to me as being very fair in all his dealings.

Further, I had a lady visitor the other day, that had in her possession several gold coins, nickel three-cent pieces and silver two-cent pieces that she wanted

"MAN IN SPACE"
MEDALIssued by
COIN-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB

Late in the evening on October 4, 1957 A.D., Sputnik I separated from its booster rockets and went into orbit around the earth—thus beginning the "Space Age".

Three years, six months and eight days later (in the fourth year of the Space Age) a man made the first orbital space flight, returning safely to earth after traveling 108 minutes through space and reaching a peak velocity of over 17,000 miles per hour—the fastest speed at which anyone has ever traveled.

The Coin-of-the-Month Club is issuing a Medal to Commemorate this momentous step forward in man's conquest of space.

ISSUE IS BEING LIMITED TO 5,000 STERLING SILVER, 10,000 NICKEL SILVER, AND 250 GOLD.

An order placed early will assure you of receiving your copy of this very limited issue. Continuing the tradition of the Coin-of-the-Month Club issues, these medals have been struck in Sterling Silver, Nickel Silver, and Gold. Fine quality and beauty of workmanship will make this commemorative medal a valuable addition to your collection.

Specifications: Size 1-5/16" (33mm). Obverse - Space capsule sent into orbit with man inside. Reverse - Facts concerning first manned orbital flight.

Pick Neglected Series For Gains

BY JIM KELLY

333 W. First St., Dayton 2, Ohio
It is not the policy of this department to predict or promote the price advance of any specific item or series. As a matter of fact, we have felt justified in taking a conservative attitude on raising prices, particularly those which seem to skyrocket up and down without sufficient reason. However, we do not feel we would be violating any confidences, or in any way influence speculation, to point out a few methods which have proven successful for many collectors and dealers in the past.

Jim Kelly

The method is quite simple—purchase choice coins in series which, at the present time, are being neglected even though they are rare and desirable.

At the moment the entire Barber series, particularly the half dollars, is being neglected, with many choice and rare items selling for less than they did three to four years ago.

This is also true of U. S. currency as well as half cents and large cents. Naturally there are exceptions where certain varieties and coins in exceptional condition bring extremely high prices. The most neglected of all U. S. series is fractional currency.

At various times all of these coins have been right close to the top in popularity and in our opinion will, at some time in the future, again be in great demand and command high prices.

Our reasoning is that most series of U. S. coins have, during the past thirty years in which we have watched them closely, followed various cycles. Not only have they followed a cycle but they have been rather consistent in the amount of time between one high peak and another.

In most cases this time element is from six to eight years. For example: proof sets reached their all-time high in August of 1956 and seem well on their way to completing the cycle during the next year or two.

It would be fun and profitable as well, to gaze into a crystal ball and figure out which of the slow series will be next to reach the top of the "hit parade."

Coin Column . . .

to sell. This lady was about 80 years old and said "the coins are of no value to me. You can have them for what you think they are worth."

Quite a temptation, I'll admit, but in this case I referred her to a local collector, who under my supervision, gave her more for her coins than I could afford.

Ed's Coiner conducted a contest for all young collectors of grade school and junior high school age. All the entrants were required to do was write a letter to Ed's Coiner stating their reasons for collecting coins. This contest proved very popular.

The contest prizes were from my own collection and included a pretty good starter set of Indian Cents, one 1861 three-cent silver in fine condition, and one 1881 three-cent nickel in fine condition.

It is my desire to conduct more contests in the future. The only drawback will be finding the coins to give away as I am getting short. I have hopes that persons interested in furthering numismatics will come to my assistance, but so far I have no offers.

Shortly after Ed's Coiner (the original name was Ed's Corner, but the city editor changed it to the more appropriate name) the fellows over at the production and layout department, got together and composed a "Head" for my column.

This "Head" consists pictures of both the obverse and reverse of an 1868 three-cent nickel. The coins are placed on either side of

Student Wins In Contest

Mike Olexa, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Olexa, Morgantown, W. Va., won a starter set of Indian cents as first prize in the Ed's Coiner coin column contest. Theme was "Why I Collect Coins." Mike, a student at Sabraton Junior high school, was also presented with an 1863 Civil War cent. Second prize went to Carol Lane Watson, Reedsville, with third prize winner being Willard L. Morris.

"Ed's Coiner" and make a really nice column head.

All of the Coiner readers are not of the older group, but rather, I have received letters from children of 5-years-old and up. In the case of the 5-year-old, the letter was written by the boy's mother. She advised that her son was putting Ed's Coiner into his scrapbook. A letter from one 10-year-old boy was the one that decided me to start the contest.

I would like to repeat that letter in part, and then you can tell why I think the contest is a worthy cause.

"Dear Ed—I have been reading your column in the Dominion-News. I am 10 years old and have a small coin collection. I have an Indian Head Cent of 1904; three Liberty Quarters including a 1905, 1912 and one minted in 1896.

"These quarters have eagles on the reverse side and 13 stars with United States of America Quarter Dollar, also on the reverse side."

After reading this boy's letter, I dreamed up the contest idea to give small collectors a chance to add to their even smaller collections.

Morgantown, where The Dominion-News is published, is primarily a university town, being the home of West Virginia University, and therefore I receive quite a bit of mail from college students.

Ed's Coiner would appreciate hearing from collectors from all over these United States, and from foreign countries, too.

That about ends it for now. Hope to hear from you-all soon.

Address any mail to Ed's Coiner, the Dominion-News, Morgantown, West Virginia.

COMMEMORATIVE COINS

Commemorative Dollars are still the same prices as in my last week's Ad, no changes until next Commemorative Ad appears in 'Coin World'.

WILL PAY $960.00 for Commemorative Half Dollar Type sets (48 coins), $2,525.00 for complete sets (142 coins), and $960.00 for Commemorative Gold sets. Send by Registered Mail for prompt payment, no need to write. Coins to be Unc., but they do not need to be "gems", as I left the gem business to the jewelers long ago. We also buy part sets, single coins, accumulations, at 80%. You know at all times what your Commemoratives are worth, since we do not jump around and offer 50% one week, and 90% the next. Also we use Toivo Johnson's Commemorative Price List, not the other fellow's!

WAS-LOOKING over some of my old price lists, and about 15 years ago, I was selling Hawaiis at $29.00, and remember many customers kicked they were too high. Now I can hardly get enough to supply the demand at $237.50, never seem to have more than 5 or 6 Hawaii in stock.

WORLD'S RECORD WANT-LIST!

LAST WEEK a customer in Virginia sent me a want-list consisting of 204 (two hundred four) full size pages, all written out by hand, weight 1 1/4 pounds. Fortunately, he enclosed only a $10.00 Deposit, to start in on my Custom Approval Shipments and pay $10 or more a month as I send coins from his list. He surely would have given me a bad case of stutters if he had enclosed a million dollar check with the want-list!

Missourians To Nominate Officers For Coming Year

Nominations for 1961-62 officers of the Missouri Numismatic Society of St. Louis are expected to be made at the next meeting of the group, scheduled for Monday May 8, at the Hotel Claridge.

On the nominating committee, named by president Edward Boehme, are Joseph Heet, Robert L. Woodside and Joseph J. Smith. The election is planned for the following meeting, June 12.

A question and answer forum conducted by Chris Schlather and Al Wick, highlighted the April meeting.

Distribution of inaugural medals, attendance prizes, bourse tables and an auction were also features of the session.

Also discussed were ways and means of improving the society's overall programs and administration.

Reported on were plans for the society's second annual Coin Festival, set for Saturday and Sunday, August 12 and 13, at the Statler Hotel, 9th and Washington, St. Louis. Bourse table reservations should be made with David L. Cooper, general chairman, 3500 Ridgedale, St. Louis 20.

Some 120 members and visitors attended the meeting, the group's 235th.

Indiana Club Changes Name

The Lebanon, Ind., Coin, Stamp and Hobby Club has changed its name as well as its place of meeting, and is now known as the Boone Coin and Stamp Club.

Next meeting of the club is scheduled for Tuesday, May 9, to be held in St. Joseph's cafeteria, starting at 7:30 p.m. Former location was the Lebanon Boys Club.

Interested collectors are invited to attend the session, according to club officials, and prospective members are welcome. Dues are $2 for adults, $1 for juniors, and free memberships for boys and girls under 12 years of age.

Seattle Sold Out Of Medals In Gold, Silver

The gold and silver medals struck to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Seattle, Wash., Coin Club have been entirely sold out, with the exception of one of each to be awarded as a special prize at the anniversary banquet May 6, according to a report from club vice president Byron Johnson.

Johnson stated that there is still an adequate number of nickel-silver medals available, however.

The anniversary celebration is to be held at the Edmund Meany Hotel in Seattle. Doors will open at 10 a.m. for displays, and a guard will be on duty all day. A few bourse tables will be available. The banquet itself is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., and speakers will be on the program. Afterward, there will be a donated auction for the benefit of the club.

Banquet reservations may be made to the secretary, Florence Seiter, 4139 20th Street, S. W., Seattle 6, at $3.50 per person; medals may be ordered from Byron Johnson, 606 West 80th, Seattle 7, at $1 each.

School Club Visits Mint And Institute

Members of the Chatham, N. J., Junior High School Coin Club recently took a chartered bus trip to visit the United States Mint and the Franklin Institute, in Philadelphia.

At the Mint, the 40 club members watched the production of ingots and the striking of them into coins. Being made were U.S. Lincoln cents and Philippine 10 cent coins. The students bought medals of many types which are sold at the Mint.

At the Franklin Institute, they made souvenir coins on an old steam-operated press. The coins were of bronze, coated with zinc, according to a report from Scott Wainwright, club member.

The Chatham Junior High School club has been in existence for three years.

Sherbrooke Fete May 6

When the Sherbrooke, Quebec, Coin Club holds its annual banquet on Saturday, May 6, climaxing its two-day Coin Show at the New Sherbrooke Hotel, one of the more important announcements is expected to be the club's new meeting place.

It has been holding its sessions at the Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A., but was recently requested to move, and an appeal was made to the membership to find a new location.

Feature of the Show is expected to be the exhibits, with an auction slated to be on the program. The Show is scheduled to open Friday evening, and last all day Saturday.

Doctor Wins Club Contest

Dr. Floyd H. Atkinson of Kewanee has been announced as the winner of the membership contest recently conducted by the Henry County Coin Club of Kewanee, Ill. John Girvin, Kewanee, was second.

As a result of the contest, more than 50 new members have joined the club, it was reported.

Next meeting of the Henry County club is scheduled for Tuesday, May 9, in the Hotel Kewanee, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Vancouver Numismatic Society Offers Few Medals To Collectors

A few Vancouver, British Columbia, Commemorative medals have been made available to collectors at $4 each, according to Miss Irene Smith, secretary of the Vancouver Numismatic Society, sponsors of the newest Canadian medal.

Miss Smith's address is P. O. Box 2467, Vancouver, 3, B. C.

Medals were made available to members of the Vancouver organization at its April meeting, held on the anniversary date of the city's 75th birthday.

Tom Robinson gave an address on the historical background of the medal. He told the 115 collectors and their guests that Vancouver was a "frontier city too busy for 15 years to think of such a dignified nicety as a coat of arms."

Robinson said Vancouver, Canada's newest city April 6, 1886, is today Canada's third largest city.

He described the medal, designed and executed at the direction of the Vancouver Numismatic Society, as a piece to be used for presentations during special occasions throughout the anniversary year.

Mayor A. T. Alsbury and members of the City Council granted permission for this design to be used on one face of the medallion. The medal also bears the coat of arms of Vancouver which came about in 1901 when the Duke of York, the future King George V, visited Vancouver and the citizens realized the time had come to assume the pomp and regalia they had earned.

A youthful English immigrant artist was appointed to draw a coat of arms in color on an illuminated address to the Duke. Two years later James Blomfield made a permanent painting of his original coat of arms and it was approved by Major Thomas F. Neelands. On the arms a fisherman and a lumberman support a shield whose alternate bands of blue and white represent the ocean. Mercury's rod in the center stands for commerce.

While the civil award medal is uniface, the Vancouver Numismatic Society's medallion has the Society's crest on the reverse.

This crest is Vancouver's most dominant landmark, the Lion's peak in the Pacific coast range, together with the Lion's Gate bridge, gateway to Vancouver's unique land-locked harbor.

Commissioned to re-design the crest for this medallion, West Coast artist Lawrence Kristman achieved a masterpiece of medallic art.

Frank Sarson of Vancouver Pressed Metal Products supervised the engraving and striking, and his enthusiasm for the design captures the third dimension. Peaks tower over bridge with all the spectacular splendor that greets the newcomer to Vancouver.

In August, 1963, North American numismatists and their families who will be in Vancouver for the Canadian Numismatic Association convention will be able to relish the seafoods, explore the tree-clad mountains dipping into the warm Pacific and visit Vancouver's beautiful shops and department stores.

The 75th anniversary commemorative medallion is crown size and struck in oxidized silver for members of the Vancouver Numismatic Society.

During the April session of the Vancouver Society, members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police showed three films including "Money Making Industry." The members were allowed to examine counterfeit bank notes and the guests gave information on how to detect them.

Chuck Nelson of the Bellingham, Wash., Coin Club invited the members to attend the Bellingham convention and auction.

The book, "Story of English Coinage," by Seaby, was presented to Fred Povarchuk as the special prize of the meeting.

Atlanta Convention Preview

Atlanta Cyclorama Famous

A.N.A. Convention Tour
To Include Battle Painting

More and more of the nation's numismatists chose to combine their annual vacations with the annual American Numismatic Association convention — and this year's meeting, August 16-19 in Atlanta, will offer historic lore of the most timely nature for the beginning year of the Civil War commemoration.

Convention officials, in describing the tours available to A.N.A. delegates, list the Cyclorama (the battle of Atlanta) as one of the outstanding attractions.

The painting, housed in the concrete Cyclorama building in Grant Park near the main entrance on Cherokee avenue in Atlanta is the largest of its kind on the world. It is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Adult admission is $1; children 50c. A lecturer relates the historical events connected with the painting every hour on the half hour.

The subject of the large painting is the Battle of Atlanta, which was fought on July 22, 1864, in the territory along the present site of Moreland avenue, approximately two and one half miles from Five Points.

The time depicted is the crucial moment at 4:30 p.m. when General Cheatham's Corps broke through the Federal 15th Corps line and the Federal troops made a counter attack in an effort to restore their line.

This battle, fought for the supremacy of the Georgia Railroad which the Union forces were attempting to destroy, was one of three important contests between Confederate forces under General John K. Hood and Federal Forces under General Sherman.

Beyond the charging soldiers, the exploding shells and rising smoke of the field, is depicted the small city of Atlanta, which had a population of approximately 15,000 at that time.

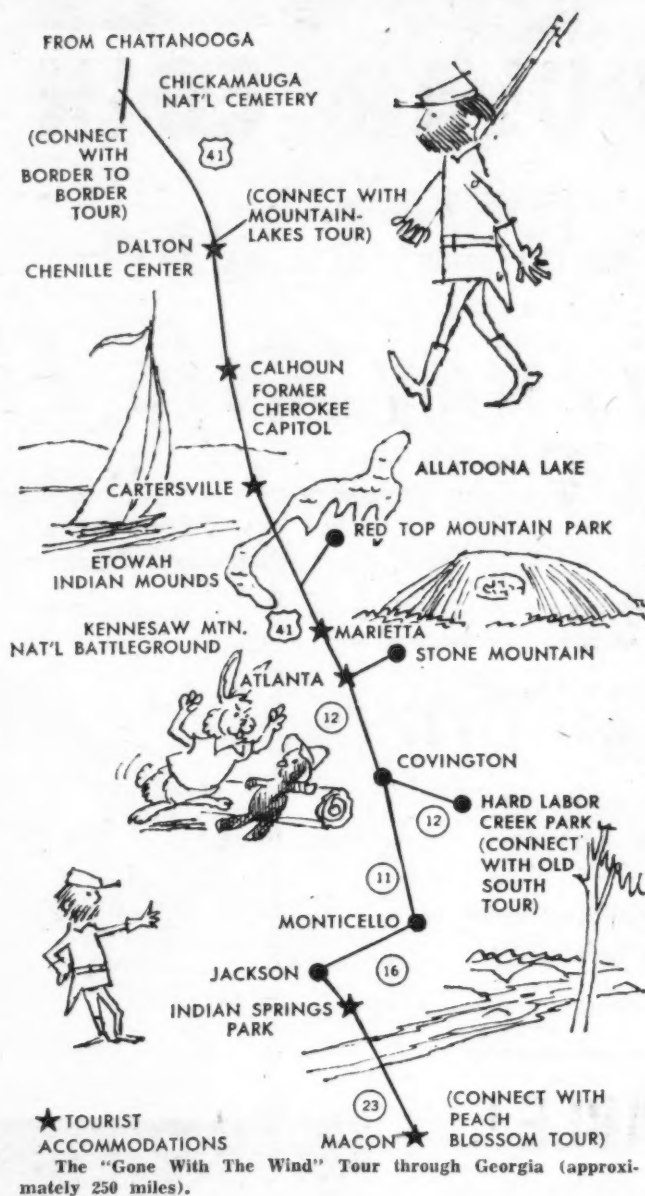

Stone Mountain and Kennesaw Mountain are seen in the distance. Above the confusion of the battle, "Abe", eagle mascot of Company C, flies high to avoid the shells. This same eagle, which died in 1871, has since been memorialized on every United States silver dollar.

Suspended from a circular rail, the canvas creates an illusion of continuous landscape when viewed from the visitor's platform in the center of the room. A striking three dimensional effect is achieved by continuing the action of the picture on the groundwork between the canvas and the visitors' platform.

This later work, which required a staff of expert artists in sculpture, painting and craftsmanship, was accomplished through the assistance of Federal funds.

Excelsior, tinted green to resemble grass, and numerous bushes are embedded in the uneven terrain between the canvas and the platform. The bushes are made of wire and plaster, some having as many as ten thousand hand-made leaves. The tree trunks are from Georgia fields, having been dynamited and treated to achieve a shell-torn appearance before being placed in the earth.

An interesting example of three-dimensional illusion is the ambulance, part of which is painted on the canvas and part executed in paint and partly extended with graded rails across the ground work to the opposite side of the picture. The effect of distance and perspective is so well achieved that a spectator standing on the visitors' platform, is unable to distinguish between the termination of the canvas and the beginning of the sculptured work.

The Cyclorama was painted in Milwaukee, Wis., by a staff of three German artists, Lohr, Lorenz and Hiene, who executed similar cycloramas of the Battles of Gettysburg and Missionary Ridge. In the early 1890's a few years after the Cyclorama of the Battle of Atlanta was painted, it was brought to Atlanta and lodged in an Edgewood Avenue building where it remained until it was purchased for $1,000 by G. V.

Gress, an Atlanta lumber merchant. It is now valued at more than $1,000,000.

Recognizing its historical importance, Gress presented it to the City of Atlanta. It was housed in a wooden structure at the Augusta Avenue entrance to Grant Park, here it remained until 1921 when the present building was erected at a cost of approximately $160,000. A free swinging canvas, and unattached at its base, the painting weighs 18,000 pounds, is approximately 400 feet in circumference and is 50 feet in height.

Double Eagle Rare

The high-relief double eagle with Roman numerals was struck on 16 coins; one sold for $9,250 in 1956.

New Medallion Honors Israel's Defense Forces

A medallion in gold and silver has been struck on the occasion of the 13th anniversary of the state of Israel to honor the Bar Mitzvah year of the establishment of Israel's defense forces.

The medallion designed by the graphic artist, Jacques Ducas, shows in the center a sword with entwined olive branch (a former Hagana emblem) and the words in Hebrew and English, "Emblems of Tsava Hagana L'Israel"; two six-pointed stars appear on each side of the legend.

Israeli Medallion

The obverse side depicts the emblems of four branches of the Defense forces: Right, Infantry; left, Air Force; Top, Navy; Bottom, Paratroops. In the center the Hebrew and English dates 1948-1961 appear. Gold content 22 Karat. Weight Approx. 231 gr. Diameter 27 mm.

As an educational feature each purchaser of the gold medallion will receive two gifts from the representative of "Maarochot"—Publishing House of the Israel Ministry of Defense in Israel—a free illustrated copy of the official booklet showing the emblem of the Israel Defense Forces (163 illustrations) and a Pictorial Review of Israel's Defense Army (390 beautiful photographs), an album of historical value. The foreword has been written by the prime minister and minister of defense, David Ben Gurion.

Purchasers of the silver medallion will also receive a free gift—a booklet depicting the Emblems of Israel Defense Forces (163 illustrations).

The silver medallion weighs 30 gr. Diameter 1½ inches.

This project is authorized by the Israel Ministry of Defense.

A total of 3,000 gold and 5,000 silver medallions have been allocated for distribution in the United States.

The Israel Coin Distributors Corporation, 327 Fourth Ave., New York, 10, New York, representatives for the Western Hemisphere, reports that the medallions were available after April 21, 1961.

The term Bar Mitzvah first occurs in the Talmud (B.M.96a) and applies to every grown Israelite. It is connected with the assumption of responsibility by a boy at the age of 13. The Bar Mitzvah ceremony served to motivate a period of training which led up to an individual's intelligent acceptance of responsibility as a member of the Jewish religious group.

In Biblical times the age of maturity was set at 20, the age at which the individual was capable of bearing arms. But during the early days of modern Israel Bar Mitzvah boys and girls were among the defenders of their land.

Before the First World War the "Hashomer" (Watchman) organization existed in Palestine whose duty was to defend the Jewish settlements from the Arab attackers. After World War I Hashomer was dissolved and replaced by the "Hagana" (Defences). This became a substantial force, successfully defending Jewish lives and property especially during the riots in 1921, 1929, and 1936-39. At the outbreak of World War II, 25,000 young men and women joined the Jewish battalions of British army. These battalions prepared the way for the establishment of Israel Defense Forces immediately after the establishment of the Jewish State on May 14, 1948.

SHOTGUN SLADE'S WANTED TO BUY!! ANYTHING OF SIGNIFICANT NUMISMATIC VALUE

I'm just finishing off my ad, and it's so late Saturday night that I'm going to make this short. However, I personally like rare and choice type coins and proofs. The only trouble with this is that there aren't enough customers or coins of this type to provide for my whole business! Here are a couple of items I hope to have on hand in good supply, and want to buy also:

	BUY	SELL
Roosevelt 10c set BU 1946-1960	$26.00	$32.50
Jefferson 5c Set BU 1938-1960	72.00	84.50
Washington Quarters BU 1932-1960	327.50	Write

(I would also like to buy part sets of Washington 25c BU, such as 1940 or 1941 to 1960. Write your holdings.)

Franklin 50c BU 1948-1960	37.50	Write
---------------------------	-------	-------

WANTED BADLY—Type sets of coins and early scarce coins. See last week's ad for typical buying prices.

Attention: Small Dealers!

You must run across a few pieces of scarce, early stuff and coins you have no particular market for, such as rare large cents, or nice early dollars, or what have you. Why not send this sort of stuff to me for an offer? Better yet, price it right yourself!

SLADE'S CHOICE SINGLES

HALF-DIMES

I picked up a nice lot of very choice BU and proof half dimes, about 20 pieces. These are the nicest I have seen.
Best Type 1829-1837 Gem-select $11.50
Seated Liberty stars 1838-1859 Gem-select $9.75
Seated with arrows 1853-1855 Gem-select $10.25
Seated motto 1861-1873. I have 4 proofs - 2 are strictly gems at $24.00 each, 2 are poorly handled at $20.00, all are very nice.
I po. 1854 arrows, BU, fine scratch Obv. $5.50

DOLLARS

Here is the price list!
$1.00 1795-I AU, perfect obv., rev. shows 2 rim dents. One of the really scarce type coins. There was only one piece offered in Houston at the convention, and it was VG at $160.00. My price for this rare type coin—$187.50
$1.00 1795-I Another, Abt. XF, no impairments, good enough for most anyone. Special $169.00
$1.00 1795-II. This is the second, or Bust type, with the rare small eagle reverse. My piece is strictly AU, with very minor adjustment marks on the obverse. Recent auction records for comparable pieces are around $250.00. As a type II dollar, the 1795

DOLLARS

is about as cheap as any. I offer this choice piece at only $210.00
$1.00 1860 Proof, but not a perfect gem. Very, very nice however. Ideal for a choice type set. Catalogues $100.00, my price $77.50
$1.00 1869 perfect gem proof. A type coin with motto. Catalogue $75.00, my price $69.50
$1.00 1900 perfect gem proof. Strictly tops as a type coin. Most Morgan proofs have been absorbed into dollar collections. Special $56.75
$1.00 1860-O EF or better. A type coin $21.50
$1.00 1877-S Trade - lustrous AU choice $12.35

GOLD

$3.00 1886-S large S. Fine
$3.00 1856-S small S. Fine — This is a scarce pair worth way over catalogue. Have you ever seen an S-mint $3.00 gold piece? The 1856 large S recently brought $120.00 in fine at auction. Special on the pair $725.00
$1.00 1874 type III lustrous BU. There is a hairline scratch on the obverse, but coins with full luster are seldom seen. Special $26.25
$5.00 1837. Extra Fine. This is the rare early flowing hair type seldom seen. My price $37.75

HODGE-PODGE

Read carefully!
1c 1877 poor, but full date. No return privilege. $17.50
10c 1869 Silver Pattern, proof (Judd 702) $17.50
50c 1870 Silver Pattern, proof (Judd 702) $17.50
This is a matching pair, with a common design, making a beautiful showpiece. I can supply a special holder for display. If you desire. The package price for both pieces with holder: $139.50
5c 1942-I Proof $4.25
25c 1932-D EF $10.25
25c 1932-D F $10.25
10c 1869 Proof $17.25
25c Isabella EF nice $27.50
1c 1914-D I call it AU, you can call it EF if it suits you. Both lines of the ear are full. This is the kind of coin everyone dreams of for their circ. set. There is, however, a tiny planchet flaw on the reverse. I saw a dealer bid $160.00 in an auction last fall for an equivalent coin. Absolutely genuine! Special $119.50
10c 1883 Hawaii BU, usual light bag marks. A very nice coin at only $45.00
25c 1883 Hawaii BU, way too cheap at $27.50
5c 1883 no/cents proof - a type coin $15.50
25c 1936-D This is the kind of coin most dealers sell as BU, but it is actually AU. Barely detectable wear. $42.75
5c 1931-S BU. This coin is to be $25.00 in the new Redbook. My below market price is $21.50

3-legged Buffaloes Galore!
The miracle has happened - I found an old-time investor with a full roll! Every piece is fine or better. In the past, I have been continually sold out at $21.50, fine. As a special, for this lot only, I'm going to sell them all at only $19.00 each, Fine

1c 1955/55 BU, bag marked as they all are. I paid $70.00 for it, and will take a quick profit at $82.50
1c 1959/68 AG. I've made these coins my special project. Many dealers have never seen one, they are so rare. One piece only $23.50
5c 1910 gem proof - a very deep strike $16.95
25c 1879 Choice brilliant proof $42.75
Spanish Cob Dollar - genuine - a nice specimen and a real piece $17.50
5c 1882 BU full shield, scarce $11.50
1c 1924-D VF-XF scarce $9.00
2c 1864 or 65 BU I have 4 of these type coins @ $8.50
50c 1915 Panama-Pacific strictly AU $37.50
50c Stone Mtn. VF-AU $2.85, strictly gem $4.60
25c 1923-S VF or better, with lots of mint luster. A very rare, hard to get coin $49.50

BUYING - SELLING BU ROLLS - BU ROLLS

About This Roll Business

In my last roll ad, I brought out that a group of Florida dealers had banded together and pooled resources. Now, we started out with a very nice roll holding - but the last ad drew orders for 30 bags of 1955-S cents alone. We need to buy your rolls just as fast as we sell. If you have one roll of 1955-P cents, or one roll of 1939-D cents, or a bag of some date, good or common, let me know. On lots of a few rolls of each date, just ship, no correspondence necessary. If you have a worthwhile lot to sell at my prices and it runs into a lot of money, just telephone. I will pay for the call if we get together.

One important item - don't send anything to me unless it is BU - just as good as you would want to buy for yourself!

I will top any offer on scarce-date rolls not listed in this ad!

HERE ARE 3 CHOICES!

BU Lincoln 1934-1960 PDS.	Complete	$27.95
BU Lincoln 1935-1960 PDS.	Complete	$23.95
1960 P and D small Date cents BU		$3.35

Any delays in shipment of the above will be because:

1. I had to assemble a couple of more roll sets.
  2. I'm so busy that I'm in the market for a day or week stretch.
  3. I died of overwork - please bear with me!
- These sets are assembled by first selecting choice rolls, with emphasis on color and lack of spotting. The rolls are then culled about 5%, since no rolls I've ever seen are perfect. Nominal bag marks and average strikes are considered acceptable. The sets are as good or better than any other dealer offers. In fact, about 1/3 of the purchases are by dealers.

Please add 20c postage for each set.

Bank Of United States Colorful, Controversial

An early check of the Bank of the United States.

By Hank Bieciuk

Perhaps the most interesting bank, and certainly one of the most controversial, was the Bank of the United States. Alexander Hamilton, in December, 1790, submitted his plans for the establishment of this bank. Although Jefferson and Madison opposed this plan, the bill establishing the bank received Washington's approval on February 25, 1791.

Hank Bieciuk

The charter was an exclusive one for 20 years. The capital of the Bank of U. S. was set at $10,000,000. This was divided into shares of $400 each and the government subscribed $2,000,000 or one fifth of the entire capitalization.

To protect the smaller shareholders, no one was permitted to cast more than 30 votes, regardless of the number of shares owned. Foreign shareholders were not permitted to vote. Twenty five directors were selected to govern the bank.

At the outset, the government became the bank's biggest borrower. To pay for the $2,000,000 worth of shares it had subscribed, the government borrowed this amount from the bank, to be repaid in installments. A most important provision of the bank's charter was the stipulation that three-fourth of the stock had to be paid for in 6 per cent U. S. bonds. These were just being issued by the government and the government used the bank in floating this issue of bonds.

The restrictions imposed upon the Bank of U.S. were few in number and in accordance with sound banking principles. Among them was the provision that the bank could not own property other than that necessary for offices, etc. It was not permitted to loan more than $100,000 to the United States, $50,000 to any state and no amount to a foreign state without Congressional sanction. Stocks and bonds could not be bought by the bank. The rate of interest to be charged was fixed at 6 per cent, a figure close to what is charged by banks today.

So imposing were the restrictions and sound banking principles governing the bank that its stock was oversubscribed less than 2 hours after it was offered for sale! Thomas Willing, president of the Bank of North

Bank Of U. S. . . .

American became the first president.

The bank began its business in Philadelphia, and eventually it opened branches in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Charleston, Savannah and New Orleans. Prior to the year 1809, no reports on the bank's condition are known to exist. That the bank was very successful is evidenced by the 8 per cent dividend that was paid to shareholders. Unfortunately, the government was forced to sell its shares in 1802 to repay its obligations due the bank. It did, however, realize a profit of nearly 57 per cent upon its investment.

During this incubation period of paper currency, the Bank of U.S. was a pillar of strength and of immeasurable service to the government. The bank's note issues were never very large compared with its large specie reserves. No notes under 10 dollars were issued. Undue expansion by state chartered banks was checked by forcing the state banks to redeem their currency in specie.

The bank's charter, as granted by Congress, was not due to expire until 1811. However, early in 1808 the bank sent Congress a petition for the renewal of its charter. Secretary of the Treasury Gallatin favored a new charter rather than a renewal. By far, the strongest objection to the renewal lay in the fact that over $7,000,000 of the $10,000,000 capital was owned abroad. Gallatin recommended a national bank: a capital of $30,000,000—1/3 to the shareholders of the present bank, 1/2 to the U.S. and the states and the remaining 1/6 to the public. Both the federal and state governments were to have participation in the affairs of the bank, and the federal government would be accommodated with loans up to $18,000,000 in emergencies.

In January, 1811, the bill for the new charter was introduced and in the house the bill was defeated by one vote, 65 to 64. The vote in the Senate was 17 to 17 and Vice President Clinton cast the deciding vote against the bill.

Jeroue Heads Midland Group

The second meeting of the recently organized Midland, Mich., Coin Club was scheduled to be held on Wednesday, May 3. At the first session, in early April, some 50 collectors were in attendance.

Officers chosen at the initial meeting were Herman Jeroue, president; Harley Slatter, vice president, and Ruby Schneider, secretary-treasurer.

Information on the time and place of meetings may be obtained from president Jeroue, 220 East Main, Midland.

fused an extension of the old, the Bank of U.S. was forced to liquidate its holdings. In liquidating, the bank paid $434 for each of its $400 shares, after having paid dividends averaging 8 1/2 per cent during its 20 year existence. Stephen Girard acquired the assets of the bank and continued the business under his name, Girard's Bank. Thus, the first Bank of U.S. came to a close.

Fair To Very Fine Texan Finds Unpublished Variety Of Half Dollar

By James G. Johnson

I ran out of time last week, so did not get around to writing this column. Several of my responsibilities take precedence over it, so when they start to pile up, the column loses. Without any false modesty, I hope you missed it, as I missed writing it.

The Coin Club of Greater Fall River, Mass., has honored me with a membership card, No. 76, for 1961. I appreciate the honor, and hope some time to attend a meeting.

Not too long ago, I referred to C. D. Clark of Akron as deceased, and he caught me up on it, saying he is very much alive. At the time, I forgot where I obtained the information, but I have since located it.

Blame the historian of the Penn-Ohio Coin Club, C.D., as it was in a history of that organization which he sent us recently. We printed the history a week or two ago, and I saw to it that the reference to your untimely demise was deleted. You had better attend the convention and prove him wrong.

It gives me pleasure to report a new variety of half dollar, previously unpublished, as a follow-up to a letter in the Clearinghouse of February 2.

W. F. Anderson, McKinney, Texas, wrote then that he had a half dollar of 1828 with knobbed 2 and square base and could not find it listed as a variety. The reply referred Anderson to a half dollar specialist, and now Anderson sends me the results, and I print the picture here. I quote from the authority (via Anderson):

"This half is an 1828, knobbed 2, square base. 'C' on reverse is double cut. It is not listed by Haseltine, Beistle or Overton, the recognized sources. It grades Fine or better."

Anderson and I would both like to hear from anybody that has one like it. (Aside to Al Overton—Do you know anything about this variety?)

Additions to the 1934 Quarter club: Ralph C. Young, Bridgeport, Pa., who reports on more than 30 of the coins, also Mrs. F. R. Montgomery of Craig, Colo., who has more than 20. She also thinks there are differences in the 1938 Quarter. I wouldn't be surprised at that, and maybe we can go on through the series after we have done a thorough job on the 1934's. Thanks to both of you for joining our group. Let's hear from more, and when I get caught up on some other correspondence, I will run a summary up to that time.

Comes now a letter from Lawrence W. Paschal, Jr., of Vernon, Texas, who has a suggestion worth listening to. He has an idea for protection of the new and inexperienced collector against the unscrupulous whom we have to admit do exist. I will quote in part and paraphrase in part.

"We have a national organization which can help, but cannot solve these evils by itself. It is not the A.N.A.'s responsibility, nor could it afford the price. However, we do have individual clubs which belong, and cooperation between them might do the job.

"For example, these unsavory characters usually belong to a local club, an attraction too great for them to resist. Since they probably also belong to the national group, if their actions were known to one or the other, could not the information be exchanged and some action then be taken?

"Suppose, unknown to the local club, one of its members was advertising coins for sale or trade and was both overgrading and over charging. Many of his clients at a distance would know and would want to get some action started. Why shouldn't they complain to the A.N.A., and that organization pass the complaints on to the local club or clubs to which he might belong because of geographical location?

"After a number of complaints were received by the club of which he was a member, then the club could take some action, and the A.N.A. likewise. Characters of this sort are quite likely

Schulman Reports

Romanticists Speculate As To Italian Coin Model

By Hans M. F. Schulman

One of our readers report that he had obtained an unpublished platinum piece:

a 5 gulden 1826 of the Netherlands in platinum. We never heard of this and would welcome a rubbing for our records. Rome reports anecdote about the latest Italian silver coin of 500 Lire with beautiful female head on obverse. It seemed to most collectors who are familiar with art that the 500 Lire Italian bust was the typical Florentine bust of Francesca de Laurana, a Spanish princess who was part of the Medici family.

Many sculptors had put her pretty face and long neck on marble and the statue known to me in the Metropolitan Museum in New York proves more than any one the likeness with the present silver 500 Lire coin.

Another theory: The engraver, old and kind M. Romagnoli, still attached to the mint in Rome, used the portrait of his wife when she was young and it resembled Francesca by chance.

Roberto Pridgen (since his visit to Puerto Rico) reported from San Juan that the coin club has become very active and that many new members have joined. Foreign, not U.S. coins, are the main topic of the collectors in Puerto Rico with Spanish coins predominant, although the Roman series are very attractive to pretty Mrs. Nelson.

Henry Christensen flew in right the day that Robert left and it was reported that he had beautiful coins to show. One of their enthusiastic new collectors, however, was not on the Isle; Catalonian Galbeto was looking for coins in New York.

It is very possible that many more coins were current here but up till now there has been no record in my possession of same coming up in finds or in old documents. I am grateful for the help given me in getting these figures together.

I received a letter from one of the readers and I quote:

"I disagree with your statement that in the U.S.A. auctions are legitimate and fair to buyer and seller". The writer then goes on and shows me examples where auction houses did not adhere to the code of ethics and law governing auctions.

In the first instance an auction house advised the bidder that he got the coins and a week later told him that the customer who had the lots wanted to top my bid and that he now would not get the coins.

This is, of course, wrong practice and most states have laws where this is forbidden even in mail auctions.

Once a coin is assigned to a bidder at a certain date, the coin can only be assigned to another bidder if the first one for any reason has refused the piece. I hope that this was one of a single matter happening at that very time and that most other readers have had the experience in auctions in the U.S.A. which made me state that they are fair to buyer and seller.

In another criticism I heard that descriptions do not always come up to par and this, of course, is a very ticklish problem. Few people interpret conditions exactly the same and some will call a brill. unc. piece extremely fine and vice versa. There is a clear definition on conditions but not all interpret this equally. However if you write an auction catalogue do not print that you guarantee the condition described. This is wrong because you leave yourself open to a real legal argument.

Not all artists are coin collectors and not all coin collectors are artists but Fernando Zobel, a collector of the best in the Greek series, has been winning prizes and recognitions all over the world for his abstract successes.

Fernando had his first show and success in Boston in 1950 and has exhibited since in New York, Washington, San Francisco, Tokyo, Yokohama, Hong Kong, Djakarta, Sydney, Melbourne, Havana, Brussels, Barcelona, Madrid, Caracas, Singapore etc. He is a Spanish painter and graphic artist.

Thousands Expected At Penn-Ohio Convention

Three million dollars in coins will be displayed at the 22nd annual Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs convention in Hotel Webster Hall, Pittsburgh, May 12 through 14.

The Pittsburgh Numismatic Society will host the convention. Ray Byrne, of 701 North Negley Avenue, past president of the Numismatic Society, is chairman.

"Some of the rarest coins in the world will be on display during the three-day convention", Byrne said.

They include an 1822 five dollar gold piece worth $50,000. There are only two in existence. An 1804 silver dollar worth $29,000 will also be on display. Both of these rare coins are owned by a wealthy Texas oil man.

J. V. McDermott, of Milwaukee, is sending a 1913 liberty nickel that was auctioned recently for $41,000. There are only six of these rare nickels known.

Dr. Vladimar Clain-Stefanelli, curator of the Smithsonian Institute and American Numismatic Association coins, will be the featured speaker at the convention which will be attended by 5,000 persons from the Tri-State area.

Dr. Stefanelli will illustrate his talk with colored slides of the U. S. Mint and Smithsonian Collections.

A three-session auction-Friday evening, 7 p.m. Saturday afternoon, 1 p.m. and Sunday morning, 10 a.m. will be handled by James Kelly of World Numismatiques, Dayton, Ohio.

Dr. V. Clain-Stefanelli

Another feature will be presentation of a brilliant uncirculated 1909-S VDB Lincoln Cent to a registrant attending the convention. In addition, a new "first of show" award, through the courtesy of the Professional Numismatists Guild, will be announced at the banquet. Many social activities for the ladies attending are being planned by the committee.

Over 60 dealers from the U.S. and Canada are already committed for the show. Many outstanding luminaries of the numismatic world will be there to greet the collectors among whom will be, in addition to Dr. Stefanelli, Rear Adm. O. H. Dodson, president of the ANA., Homer Swanson, president of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs, John J. Pittman, board of governors, and many others.

Serving with Byrne are:

Exhibit chairman, Dr. V. G. Patton; Banquet and hotel reservations, P. E. DeVos; Registration, Richard Yeager; Publicity, Mrs. Agnys Williams; Security, Uniformed and Private Police.

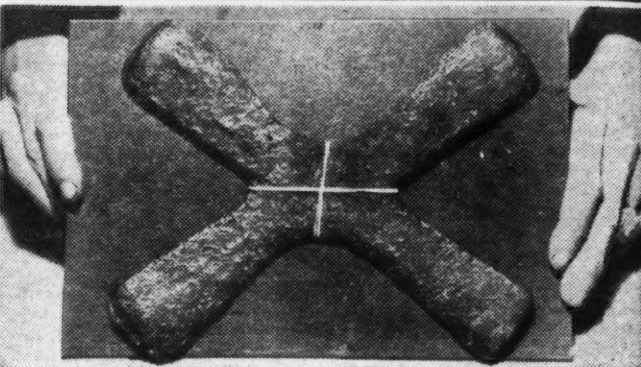

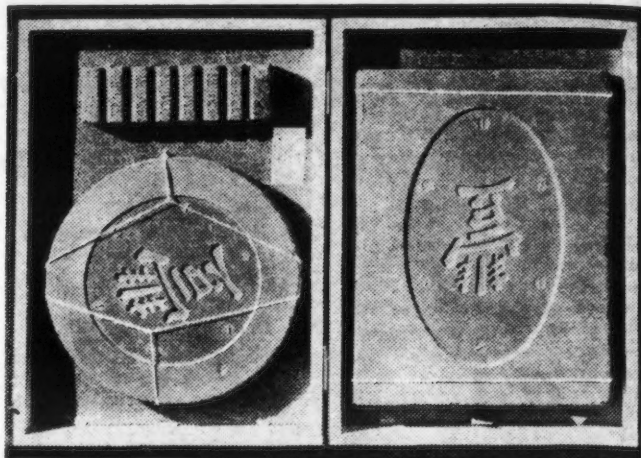

Bourse Committee, P. E. DeVos, Duane Feisel, Ed Szypulski, Joseph Breyer, Robert Porter, Lee Mason, John Booth, Bill Ross, Jack Kelly, George Dunay, Ed Purcell.

Exhibit committee, James Ridgeway, John Speicher, Phil Williams, Ed Stack, Ken Black, Ray Rennick, R. Litvinovich, Andrew Kranack, Mrs. Kelly, Rudy Rehola, Bob Lloyd, Emerson Smith, Leonard Carr, Richard Foley, John Kennedy, Dr. J. O. Sloss, I. B. Lando, Ray Lew.

Sergeant at arms for Convention, Gordon Dodrill (Registration Desk Ladies from Pittsburgh Convention Bureau).

Officers of the host Pittsburgh Numismatic Society are Duane H. Feisel, president; James H. Ridgeway, vice president; Richard E. Yeager, treasurer; Mrs. Agnys Williams, secretary; Gordon Dodrill, sergeant at arms; Miss Constance Leone, correspondent.

Penn-Ohio officers are Homer Swanson, president; Thomas Williams, vice president; Miss Laura Caddy, secretary, and Fr. Albert J. Klein, treasurer.

Compressed tea money from the Orient, (top) wife-buying money from the Baluba Tribes of the Belgian Congo, center and the king of American silver coins, the 1804 silver dollar, which sold for $29,000 recently will be among the three million dollars in coin on display at the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs convention in Pittsburgh May 12 through 14.

Money Went To Her Head!

By Loraine Burdick

In Bethlehem, it was the custom for money to go to a girl's head. Buried money could be lost or stolen, but coins sewed to her hat would always be hard to lose. This wool hat was brought to England from Bethlehem about 1870 by a British scholar and is typical of such money hats. In truth, it is what is called a dowry headdress for it represented the family savings that accompanied a daughter upon her marriage.

The hat itself, embroidered in blue, red, buff and green, is not so old as the years go. But the coins represent a hoarded treasure that may have been passed down from the time of Christ through many generations of the same family.

The oldest coin is right at the forehead atop all others and though it hangs upside down it is easy to recognize what appears to be a demure bird. This is the owl of ancient Athens and the coin dates from between 527 and 430 B. C.

Next oldest coin is another bird, an eagle on the attached necklace second from the right and dating from Ptolemy II of Egypt. But Ptol ruled over quite an area and this tetradrachm was struck at Sidon between 256 and 255 B.C. The shekel of Tyre from about 107 B. C. shows its god Melkarth and hangs directly under the owl.

There are denarii of the Roman Empire (some hanging on the left side of the forehead row), including one of Caesar Augustus minted at Lyons, France. Then the Byzantine Empire at Constantinople is represented by both solidus and nomisma, one of the latter being second from the left on the forehead and showing Christ on His throne.

There is one coin from Jerusalem's crusader kingdom plus ten from Venice, Italy, which probably came on one of the crusades. Other coins that simply came as a matter of exchange include more recent ones from Spain, Denmark, Poland and Transylvania.

Besides the foreign occupations of the land as represented by the above coins, Palestine was also often in the hands of various Mohammedan invaders beginning with the Calphs of Damascus of the 700's, and ending with the Ottoman Turks who occupied the land as late as the early 20th century—1920 to be exact.

The sides and back of the hat have a shingle network of Ottoman Turkish coins numbering some 1600 and sewed too closely together even for exact identification. It gives the headdress something of an armadillo or chain mail appearance and adds probably more weight than wealth since most are cheaper, more common coins.

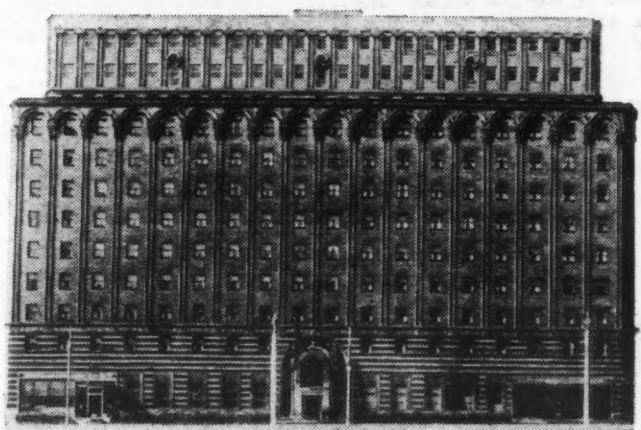

Muslim coins on the hat include those from the Caliphs of Damascus starting in 704 A. D., 1 from the Bahrein invasion of Palestine in 970.

But of the some 50 coins on forehead, neck at the back, and front necklace, five of these are truly rare coins and add a great deal to the hat's heirloom value.

If men ever married Bethlehem girls for their money, surely this hat was a powerful persuader. Yet because the treasure is intact and we have no way of knowing whether any of the coins was ever removed and spent, probably the man treasured the headdress as much as the woman and both carefully preserved it, adding to it all they could before proudly placing it upon the head of a shy young daughter before she made her way to her husband's home.....

to show the same traits locally that they exhibit in their national dealings, so the complaints probably would not come as too great a surprise.

"This would give an added benefit and incentive for local clubs to join the A.N.A. It would also mean more when a seller of coins advertised that he belonged to the national group. It would give the A.N.A. some resemblance to other organizations that have national character and exercise some control over their members' actions.

"Finally, it would help the young or inexperienced collector avoid having to go through many dealers to find out which are fair and which are not. The way our numbers are increasing makes it imperative that something be done to build collectors' confidence in those who sell and trade."

Mr. Paschal has a thought, there. Of course, we expect to find a small percentage of "bums" in any field, but numismatics being the kind of hobby it is, and its adherents ranging so wide; in age and experience, there is no excuse for a single unfair practitioner. Nor is it a question of legality, but rather one of ethics that would prevent the strong from preying on the weak, in a manner of speaking.

When I was a college teacher, I used to see in occasional college catalogues a course offered called "Christian Ethics". Then I would see another one called "Business Ethics". Nobody was ever able to explain to me why they should be separate courses or why there should be any difference between them.

To my mind, overgrading and overcharging and underpaying when buying coins or "putting something over" in a trade, are just different forms of cheating, and I despise a cheater. When I run into one, I have just as little to do with him thereafter as possible, either personally or in business matters.

Somewhat along the same line, Kenneth W. Mackie of Seattle, Wash., has a "gripe" about the trading section. He says some (not all) people advertising there in "want a barrel of flour for a loaf of bread", in other words want to make unfair trades, and the newer collectors are fooled. He feels that trades should be of equal value to both parties, and the "Red Book" is the only fair way to trade value for value.

I agree, Jimmy an' I have done a lot of trading in the past, and it was always Red Book value for Red Book value. As a dealer, I did quite a bit of trading with collectors who came to my bourse tables, and I worked the same way. I would make an offer based on 25 per cent off Red Book, and tell the other party to pick out anything he wanted that added up to that price since my prices averaged 25 per cent below Red Book.

If my prices had been Red Book values, I would have offered Red Book values, sir. I made no difference to me whether I made my profit off his coin or off my own, and why should I make more off his? ## Display Night For Dayton Club To Be Held On May 4

The Dayton, Ohio, Coin Club is scheduling a special display night for its next meeting, to be held Thursday, May 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan building, 22 Ludlow Street.

Using educational value, appearance and rarity as the basis for judging, in that order, the member having the best exhibit will receive a prize.

At the last meeting, 12 new members were accepted into the club as the climax to its membership drive, making 24 new members at the last two sessions. Winner of the membership contest is expected to be announced at the May meeting.

In the absence of the scheduled speaker, John Thorn who was prevented from appearing by illness in his family, James G. Johnson, associate editor of Coin World and a Dayton club member, substituted with the same subject, large cents.

Johnson discussed his exhibit of that coin, and brought up the question of large cent varieties as studied and published by Newcomb, in comparison with varieties of today's coins which are largely "hit and miss" since they have not been studied. He called on several other exhibitors to discuss their displays.

For the auction, new forms had been prepared, on which all lots were to be listed in duplicate, with one form going to the secretary, John McKinney, the other being retained by the owner. At the auction, proof sets moved well, from 1950 to 1960, but in general lots with reserve bids close to catalogue were passed up.

Ontario Clubs May Hold Conclave Waterloo Host For March Session

An annual convention for Ontario coin clubs was the proposal which developed following a meeting of representatives of 12 coin societies in connection with the Waterloo Coin Society's second annual banquet and auction recently at Walper Hotel in Kitchener, Ontario.

Rod Rekofski headed the conclave during which the convention idea was born; the clubs also discussed standard display categories and judging procedures.

More than 200 persons visited the displays at the Waterloo affair with 160 present for the banquet and the illustrated talk by Rod Rekofski on early British Roman coins. He accompanied the talk with his own color slides, photographed from his own collection.

Special guests included Mrs. Louise Graham, secretary of the Canadian Numismatic Association; John Pittman, member of the board of governors of the American Numismatic Association, and visiting club presidents from as far north as Capreol, Ontario.

The visiting club presidents judged the displays. The J. Edward Stahley Award was won by Philip Mueller, Kitchener, Ont.

Other awards went to Mrs. William English, Waterloo, silver medal, for best display in show, and bronze medal, for best foreign display. Bronze medals were won by: Albert Fuller, Kitchener, best miscellaneous display; R. Rekofski, Kitchener, best classical, and Bill English, Waterloo, best Canadian display.

The court of honor displays drew high praise from everyone. "Frank Uttley is certainly to be commended for his untiring effort to get these displays set up," club officials said.

A spirited coin auction closed the evening under the hand of Bill West from London, Ontario.

Saltzgeber Named Temporary Chairman

The newly organized Lake City Coin Club of Seattle, Wash., has scheduled its second meeting for Thursday, May 4, at the Lions Club Community center, 125th and 28th Avenue N. E. Lake City, in Seattle, starting at 7.30 p.m.

M. Saltzgeber of Seattle was chosen temporary chairman of the group, at the first session which took place April 18.

A cameraman's view of the second annual banquet of the Waterloo Coin Society, held recently at the Walper Hotel, Kitchener, Ontario, shows a glimpse of the outstanding displays and bourse area. Officials of the host club said the affair took on a convention atmosphere with 12 coin societies represented at the special business session dedicated to strengthening relationships of Ontario coin clubs.

New Club Proposed

Bill Johnson, owner of Johnston's TV and Appliance store in Broken Arrow, Okla., is interested in starting a coin club. He would like any other collectors in that area to get in touch with him. At present, Johnston plans to have a coin display in his store window.

COIN WORLD CELEBRATES THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL WITH A COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Available Only To Coin World Subscribers!

(Non-subscribers, see new subscription form in this issue.)

Available Only From Coin World!

(One of a series)

The firing on Fort Sumter one hundred years ago marked the beginning of the War between the States. As we begin the five year centennial of this historic event, Coin World joins in commemorating this event by preserving in metal the heads of state for both the North and the South: Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis.

Bronze medals have been struck bearing the portraits of these two leaders. Above the three-quarter view of Lincoln and Davis appear the words: 1861 - CENTENNIAL - 1961, below, the words: WAR BETWEEN THE STATES.

On the reverse of this medal is a symbol familiar to more than 55,000 collectors — the revolving globe of the world,

Coin World's trademark! An entire series of these commemorative medals is planned, maintaining the continuity of this reverse. Each year, a prominent event or person will be placed on the obverse portraying a part in a series of American numismatic events.

You will certainly want to get the first one in this series of Coin World medals. These half-dollar-sized medals will form a companion piece to your commemorative half dollars, so-called half dollars, and other half dollar size medallion series.

OXIDIZED BRONZE MEDALS ARE AVAILABLE NOW. Sent postpaid for...

Fred Tinkham Names Fresno News Bulletin

Winner of the contest to name the new news bulletin of the Fresno, Calif., Numismatic Society has been announced by editor Everett G. Jewett as Fred Tinkham of Hanford, Calif., offering the title "The Fresno Numismatist".

Major topics for discussion at the next meeting of the club, scheduled for Friday, May 5, at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Divisadero and "R", starting at 7:30 p.m., are expected to be the Society's annual Coin Fair, and its campaign to eliminate the sale of altered date coins.

At a recent meeting, members voted that no altered date coin would be allowed in the club auction, even if identified as an altered date. Jewett has suggested that such coins should be stamped with a large "A" whenever located.

In the bulletin is a further suggestion that a form be filled out whenever an altered date coin is offered for sale. This would contain the following information:

Date and time of offer, name of seller, original date on coin, false date, seller's source, whether offered as altered or genuine, seller's reaction when advised coin not genuine.

It was thought that the fact that such information was being recorded would help to discourage trade in altered date coins.

El Paso Group Has Library Exhibit

(I am tired of trying to figure out why this roll sells for less now than the prices of last July. They are constantly in demand and become more difficult to obtain daily. In view of the fact that the 1960 small date varieties are an acknowledged part of the Lincoln Cent Set, it can be easily understood why these coins are more desirable than ever.)

1960-D Small Date Cents $5.95

(Probably the biggest roll sleeper in many years, and time will prove me right!!! Most of this issue was dumped into circulation early in the year. I am sure that the existing quantity of uncirculated pieces is less than 5 to 1 compared to the uncirculated 1960-P small dates. These facts have not yet been reflected in the price of this roll . . . remember I told you so!)

Club Fines Non-Exhibitors

The Guthrie, Okla., Coin Club has found a new way to replenish its treasury, and will put its plan into effect at its next meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, May 10, at the Lone Hotel, starting at 8 p.m., according to a report from Mrs. Ted Robertson, secretary.

The new system, voted in at the last meeting, will be to assess a 10 cent fine against any member who fails to bring an exhibit of some kind to the meeting. The fines will be used for a picnic later in the year, and to help pay for refreshments at the regular meetings.

Merkin Issues List

FACTS

You Should Know About COIN CLEANERS!

For years coin collectors have searched for an all purpose cleaner that was SAFE! Many dollars were spent for products that made fantastic claims. At COINEW we suspect that many valuable coins have been discolored and stained in ways that brought disappointment and disillusionment. Some coin cleaners are good . . . no question about it; but we believe that many do not perform in accordance with the claims made.

Some products are falsely colored with ingredients that are absolutely unnecessary in the cleaning process. Some are messy to use and require extensive rubbing. Others are ineffective paste. Recognizing the need for a coin cleaner that was completely safe and effective, too, COINEW went to work and searched the nation for the ingredients that would solve the coin cleaning problem . . . once and for all!

We have found these ingredients! We have named it COINEW. It is so remarkable in its action that we are afraid collectors won't believe us when we describe what it can do. Sometimes words lose their real meaning because people are fooled by them so often. (Fantastic, amazing, magical, etc.) We hesitate to use such words even though they are truthful when associated with COINEW.

COINEW IS A REAL SHOCKER! COINEW is a clear liquid. (No artificial coloring to deceive). It is simple and quick in its action. YOU JUST DIP THE COIN . . . THAT'S ALL! Rinse it off and there you are. Filthy uncirculated coins once again reflect the bright frostiness they had when they first left the mint. But that's not all. COINEW does a dandy job on XF and AU coins as well. Believe it or not, it works beautifully on any kind of coin. Try it on gold, silver, nickel or copper. Even zinc coins snap back to their original beauty. What more can we say? You have to see it work on your own coins to believe it.

One dollar buys a bottle of COINEW at your local dealer . . . enough to clean hundreds of coins. If COINEW doesn't do all we claim, just return it. You will obtain an immediate refund. We know we are secure in offering a money back guarantee. COINEW is revolutionary . . . after two years of testing, we know we've got a good thing! You don't risk a thing when you purchase COINEW. You are simply making an intelligent investment that can pay for itself over and over again . . . because your coins will be worth more!

NOTE—If your dealer has not yet stocked COINEW, we will be happy to promptly furnish you a bottle at the regular price of $1.00 plus 25c to cover postage and handling.

Special Wholesale Prices To Dealers On Request.

Heritage Collection Burglarized

J. D. Young, Indianapolis, reports theft of 14 books from his coin collection recently—he had worked on its assembly for more than 20 years for his six grandchildren.

Young says he can identify these coins—his three Lincoln sets were short the 1909-3 VDB—and he has identification for many of the coins—for example, the loss included an 1895-O dime with the lower part of the date worn, a 1914-D Buffalo nickel was dark around the date, and an 1884 $5 Richmond Confederate bill, worn, in plastic.

"From now on they go to the bank vault," declared Young.

A coin thief believed to have identified himself as a "fraternity brother" robbed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Stewart, Portland, Oregon, of $2,000 in rare coins.

Someone called on Saturday and told Mrs. Stewart he was a fraternity brother of her husband and asked for their address; the next day while they were at church the collection was stolen.

Jack Williams, West Covina, Calif., reports his coin collection valued at $1,668 was stolen from his home recently.

Robert Beebe, Ventura, Calif., told sheriff's deputies his coin collection valued at $1,000 was stolen from his Thousand Oaks residence.

Burglars broke into the home of Harry Caplan, El Paso, Texas, and took part of a coin collection. Four books with $170 in coins were left behind.

A thief took more than $150 worth of coins from the Clifford Gordon home, Independence, Kansas.

A coin collection valued at about $4,000 has been reported missing by its owner, Dale B. Wheeler, Eugene, Oregon.

Gary Goldsbury, Pasco, Wash., told police officers his coin collection worth $50 had been stolen from his home.

Miss Numismatist Of 1961

Miss Daralene Yargar, of Yakima, Wash., is helping the Rainier Coin Club celebrate National Coin Week. Miss Yargar's crown is a 1961 proof set inscribed "Miss Numismatist 1961." In her left hand she holds an 1852 $50 gold slug along with a silver Alexander the Great. B. E. Ingalsbe is president of the Rainier club.

Boston Club Changes Site

The Collectors Club of Boston, Mass., has scheduled its next meeting for Tuesday, May 9, at its new meeting place, the Copley Square Hotel, starting at 8 p.m. Rapid increase in membership and enlarged attendance at meetings has caused the club to outgrow its former location at the Sheraton Plaza.

At the last session of the group, its 16th anniversary was celebrated, with charter member Maurice M. Gould as main speaker. He discussed the club history from its start with 24 members in 1945 to its present enrollment of more than 100. The club voted to bring to the May meeting some coin donations to be sent to Victor LaVelle whose robbery had been described in 'Coin World', after secretary Grace D. Lincoln read the clipping to the group.

Following an auction, refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served, together with homemade cakes donated by members.

Carbondale Site Of Show

The Carbondale-Simpson Numismatic Association of Simpson, Pa., has scheduled its annual Coin Show for Sunday, May 14, to be held at the Hotel American in Carbondale, Pa.

Information regarding the Show may be obtained from secretary T. A. McDonnell, 6 Cleveland Avenue, Carbondale.

Next regular meeting of the club is slated for Sunday, May 7, at 305 Morse Avenue, Simpson, starting at 7 p.m., at which time final details of the Show will be discussed.

Mr. Gold Club Guest

Dr. James Sloss, prominent Beaver, Pa., numismatist, spoke to members of the Beaver Falls Area Junior High School Coin Club recently.

Other students in the school interested in collecting coins were special guests.

Dr. Sloss, who is referred to as "Mr. Gold," includes in his collection some of the items that once were a part of the collection of King Farouk.

Dr. Sloss told the students he began collecting coins in 1930, and through buying and selling coins and stamps he financed himself through medical school.

He was founder of the Beaver Coin Club, and currently serves as secretary.

Busy Banker - Collectors Often Face Frustration

Don Bennett of West Memphis, Ark., sent along a little squib to the effect that Mrs. Lois O'Neal of Hope, Arkansas, found two 1909-SVDB's in the space of a few months. P. S. She works in a bank.

COMMENT: Plenty has been said about luck in making "finds". We have not thought to mention that working in a bank can be useful, too. However, there are many bank tellers and such that don't know coins, and a good many who do-but don't have time to look for them, so it's a mixed blessing, and frustration for the latter.

Rose Lahoer (we hope that's right, signature a little difficult to read) of Los Angeles, Calif., writes in that she found a BU 1966 Lincoln cent. A diecrack over the 0 makes a plain 6. She hopes it will be of interest to collectors of odd ones.

COMMENT: Probably would be. We suggest you take it to the Los Angeles Coin Club meeting at 7:30 this Friday evening, May 5, at Forester's Hall, 1329 South Hope Street, and ask an officer of the club to tell you who is interested in "off-beat" Lincolns. You should get some action. Let us know what happens.

a Mint error or a die variety but merely caused by accident or intentional mistreatment after striking.

Microscopic investigation should be helpful either to prove or to eliminate some of the possibilities. If any readers say they have the same thing, then that is evidence in favor of a die variety or Mint error. Incidentally, the normal 1931 looks like a "broken nose" type. If space permits, and the defective coin turns out to be twins with others, we will print the picture before returning it. In the meantime, why not take the coin to one of the numerous coin clubs in your area?

Regarding the Indian heads, the "closed" "9's" are caused either by small die cracks (quite likely) or in the case of the 1890, a "9" over "8" or recut "8" (much less likely but not impossible).

The smaller the normal gap between two parts of a digit or letter, the greater the chance of a die crack appearing.

This is especially true if there was a large mintage, as there was in the two years in question, since the dies would have had usage. If the 1890 were an over-date or recut date, there should be additional evidence in the background of the digits, which could be determined only by microscopic examination.

Incidentally, there seems to be a difference in the AM of America in the two 1890's, one of them being joined, the other not, but it is difficult to tell exactly from the pictures, and if one was a die crack, it could be merely a later state of the same die and not a die variety. You might study them a little closer, and let us know what you find.

Outside of a few specific examples, like the open and closed "3", the two 1886 varieties, and the 1869 over 68, all more or less accidentally discovered, there has been no published study of Indian cent die varieties, to our knowledge. Like the Mercury dimes, this is a neglected field, not to mention Washington Quarters, W. L. Halves, and a few more.

Incidentally, in any study of a series, it is essential that quite a number of examples of each date be used, if only to help determine comparative rarity of a specific variety if one is discovered. Letters and pictures like yours are very helpful.

While on the subject of Indian heads, Jordan D. Goldings of Boston sends in a picture of an 1864-L cent with a definite recut date. This is a previously unpublished die variety, so far as we know.

It is also unknown how many 1864-L coins were actually minted. Let's have some other reports on this one.

Joe Madonia of Helena, Ark., writes about a laminated 1944-P Jefferson nickel. He spotted a lamination crack on the edge, and then broke the coin in two even halves with his fingernail. Then he found the planchet was slightly clipped, and wants to know if the coin is a "double Mint error", and where it stands on a scale of rarity.

COMMENT: We would say that it could easily be called a double Mint error. We have never seen any statement about nickels as far as a rarity scale is concerned, but on Lincoln cents, defective planchets and clips rank toward the most common. We suggest you write Raymond J. Larson, secretary, Society of Collectors of Numismatic Errors, 417 Hillcrest Dr., Plattsmouth, Nebr., and enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Thomas O. McCue, Beaver Falls, Pa., has found in parking meter coins, a double struck Lincoln cent. On the obverse, part of the date shows up on Lincoln's shoulder, and part of the Liberty on his head. On the reverse, the C of Cent blots out the M in America, and part of the extra T is over the E of One. The double strike is far from complete, but there is enough to show what happened.

COMMENT: It is evident that between striking (there always are more than one), the fastenings loosened, and the coin turned half way around in the collar before the die struck again, the second time more lightly. It is an interesting specimen.

Tony Pelullo, Hartford, Conn., asks what is the value of a 1960-D double struck date, as he has seen them advertised for as much as $75.

ANSWER: Wait until such things settle down a bit. You might write that advertiser to ask what he will pay for one.

PRESENTING A NEW KIND OF COIN BOOK FOR ALL COLLECTORS, INVESTORS AND COLLECTOR INVESTORS!

UNCOVERED!

The prices of uncirculated U.S. Coins for each separate year since 1935! A fascinating year to year history of coin prices that will open your eyes! Learn what the yearly price change percentage has been on each coin. Many surprises in figures revealed!

WHAT WILL YOUR EXPENSIVE COLLECTION, YOUR COIN INVESTMENTS, BE WORTH IN THE YEARS AHEAD . . . WHAT ARE THEIR "MATURITY" DATES AND VALUES?

For the first time this priceless data is made available in "The Profit March Of Your Coins From 1935 To 1968." Here you will find a scientific and accurate scale of future values based upon what each coin has done in the past. Up until now such predictions were based on the mere pulling of a hypothetical figure out of the air. You'll see how coin prices change over the years, the price change percentages, coinage totals, projected prices from 1961 to 1968, comments on the future . . . on each and every uncirculated coin, roll, or proof set.

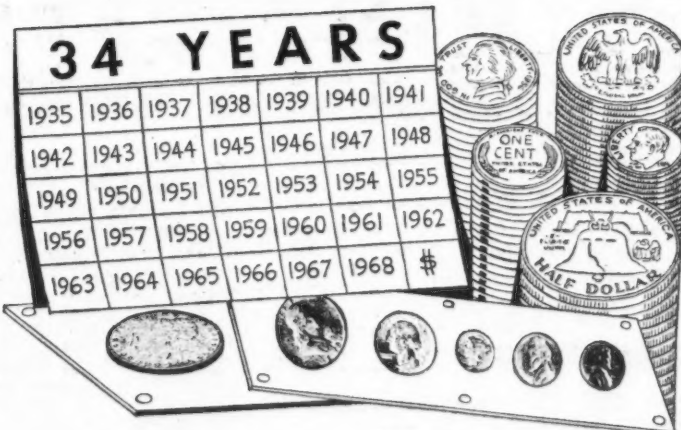

Reading this guide will leave you with a new respect for your investment.

You'll see what the prices were back in 1936, 1945, 1950 . . . or any other year! How they have changed, startlingly, in the thirties, forties and fifties . . . and what they will be in the next four or eight years!

Up until now, the factors involved in coin futurities have not been presented so there has been no yardstick with which to measure the possibilities. Now revealing pages mathematically prove that most investments in coins will, regardless of present confusion, produce future yields that will far exceed expectations!

Not only the coin investor, but the collector should have this guide in his possession! Collections have a way of growing and growing until they represent a tremendous investment. If you have such a valuable collection or have set aside rolls, you should know how long it will be before your coins are worth a certain amount of money . . . enough, perhaps, for college educations . . . travel . . . emergencies . . . or even partial retirement (it has been done). You'll get the answers when you have this unusual book before you. You will be shown the individual price pattern of each coin, the length of each cycle and the frequency of change. With this set pattern you can observe how long the upsurges and the downsurges lasted in the past and govern future actions accordingly.

"THE PROFIT MARCH OF YOUR COINS FROM 1935 TO 1968"

LEARN WHICH COINS ARE LIKELY TO INCREASE IN PRICE FIRST. WHICH WILL OFFER THE BEST SECURITY OVER THE YEARS.

Inasmuch as the past is but a mirror of the future, it would behoove any coin collector or investor to seriously review the past price history! Such records have always been available in other investment fields! Now for the first time you have the same opportunity! Don't guess or worry any longer because of a lack of investment knowledge!

Collectors Offered Cents By Vending Machine Firm

A. Kantor, owner of the First National Vending Service, a Chicago firm which operates vending machines throughout the Middle West, today explained the procedure his company uses in furnishing unpicked cents from vending machines to coin collectors.

Kantor, who is a stamp man himself, and past president of the National Vendors' Association, disclosed there is a sudden and widespread interest in sacks of coins guaranteed to be unpicked following the recent pronouncement of the Federal Reserve Bank governors.

This statement indicated that coins are to be furnished for commercial purposes only and that needs of collectors are secondary.

Kantor makes the cents available to collectors from his vending machines in variety stores, grocery chains, independent stores in small and large towns, industrial and rural towns, representing a cross section of the population.

Periodically, Kantor explained, route men call upon the stores with vending machines and the coins are removed at the time the vendor is refilled.

The complete collection from that vendor is then placed in a sealed sack and the location noted on the bag. This sack is brought into the warehouse along with others.

Approximately 100,000 cents are collected daily. Since more coins are collected each day than are needed for collectors, each bag of 5,000 coins is electrically counted on a high speed counter.

Those coins for collectors are counted in the presence of the head of the firm so that no one removes any of the coins. The coins for collectors are then sealed with a lead seal so that they can never be opened again except by the collector. A tag is placed on each sack indicating the source of the coins along with a guarantee that the coins have not been picked over. The coins are then boxed ready for shipment.

Hundreds Of Soviet Medals Struck As Honors And Awards

First Award Medal Decreed Early In 1938

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of two stories written on government award medals of the U.S.S.R. by Arkadi Luppel, scientific worker in the numismatic department of the Moscow State Museum of History, and sent to Coin World through the press department of the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in Washington.)

By Arkadi Luppel

It is quite possible, though extremely difficult, to outline the history and types of Soviet coins in one single article. The same, however, can not be said of the medals existing in the U.S.S.R. At present there are 1500 different varieties of medals in the Soviet Union struck to mark historic events, in honour or in commemoration of outstanding persons, medals instituted as awards for military and civil service, as graduation awards, awards for achievements in the field of athletics, etc. Each of these medals deserves special mention and can serve as a topic for a separate article.

In our article, (August 25-September 1, 1960, Coin World) about the gold medals of the U.S.S.R. we acquainted our readers with the "Golden Star" and "Hammer and Sickle" medals awarded to Heroes of the Soviet Union and Heroes of Socialist Labour, and the medals awarded to Lenin Prize Laureates and laureates of the prize "For Strengthening Peace Among the Peoples". In this article I would like to tell you about the award medals instituted for wearing or ribbons.

The first award medal was instituted on January 24, 1938, by a decree of the U.S.S.R. Supreme Soviet in honour of the XX-th anniversary of the Workers' and Peasants' Red Army and Navy. The anniversary medal "XX Years of the Workers' and Peasants' Red Army" was awarded to officers of the regular army and navy with 20 years of service to their credit, and also to veterans of the civil war.

The face of the medal is embossed with a five-pointed star of red enamel. A gold figure "XX" is set between the lower points of the star. The reverse side of the medal is engraved with the figure of a soldier. The medal is made of silver and has a diameter of 30 mm.

The medals "For Valour" and "For Services in Battle" were struck on October 17, 1938. They were awarded to officers and men for courage and bravery in the field.

The first of the two medals bears the inscription "For Valour" in red enamel with flying planes above it and a tank underneath. The lower part of the medal is embossed with the letters "U.S.S.R." in red enamel. The medal is made of silver and is 37 mm in diameter.

The second medal is embossed with the inscription "For Services in Battle", with the words arranged one under another in three lines. The top of the medal carries the letters "U.S.S.R." in red enamel and the lower part is decorated with a rifle and sword placed crosswise. The medal is coined out of silver and has a diameter of 31 mm.

Hundreds of thousands of Soviet servicemen were awarded these medals for valour and bravery displayed during the rout of the German fascist invader.

The year 1938 also saw the institution of the medals "For Valiant Labour" and "For Meritorious Labour". These medals were awarded to factory and office workers, collective farmers, engineers and technicians, workers in the field of economy, transport, construction, trade, culture and science for feats of labour performed for the benefit of the people.

The inscriptions on both medals are in red enamel. The letters U. S. S. R. are in relief. The first of the medals has a five-pointed star above the inscription, and the second one a hammer and sickle fulfilled in red enamel. The medals are made of silver and are 34 mm. in diameter.

Many of the medals struck in the Soviet Union in subsequent years date back to the period of the Great Patriotic War of 1941-1945.

The valiant defence of the hero-cities of Leningrad, Odessa, Sevastopol, Stalingrad, as well as the capital of the U.S.S.R.—Moscow, the Caucasus and the Soviet arctic regions are glorious pages in the history of the Soviet state.

The Soviet state worthily commemorated the heroic feats of the defenders of our Motherland by instituting medals "For the Defence of Leningrad", "For the Defence of Odessa", "For the Defence of Sevastopol", "For the Defence of Moscow", "For the

These medals were awarded to servicemen of the Soviet Army and Navy, as well as to civilians who took direct participation in the defence of the above-mentioned cities and territories.

The face of each of these medals is decorated with a multi-figure composition depicting the defenders of the respective city or territory and a corresponding inscription. The reverse side of each medal bears the inscription "For Our Socialist Motherland".

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted H. Hammer

"How silly can you get?"

"Does numismatics make every collector turn into a nut? Huh?" The speaker was a Parent-Teacher Association member and she was addressing a coin collector who had a dressed a monthly PTA meeting. The collector, a professional man, had brought along five cases of coins for display after his talk. Setting up such a display could easily taken up 10 to 15 hours, to say nothing of the job of moving coins and cases to the school.

Ted R. Hammer

The woman had lifted the lid of a coin case and was about to pick up a coin when the speaker gently put his right hand on her wrist, restraining her. He explained that coins must be held a certain way—by the edges—to avoid getting fingerprints on them. A thumb print on a proof or uncirculated coin can mar it permanently, he explained.

Then he held up a coin—not the one for which the woman had reached—demonstrating how it could be seen better when held by the edges, between the thumb and index finger. It was at this point that she put her questions.

The coin the woman had tried to pick up was the collector's particular pride, being not only one of the first he acquired, but which had become the most valuable. A proof dollar, it was given to him when he was a boy, enjoying the first months of collecting half a century ago.

A fingerprint on a proof or uncirculated coin might reduce its value 75 per cent to 80 per cent, the collector explained. Body acids transferred to a bright, shiny coin via the pores, could cause a permanent stain and tarnishing. True, the coin might be cleaned—but a cleaned coin always looks like a cleaned coin and is not worth as much as one with original mint lustre. And even dipping will not always remove the fingerprint's smudge.

The visitor closed the case, gazing fondly at his dollar, and snapped the brass lock, so that the case could not be opened easily.

The woman sighed, and moved along, ignoring the rest of the display. But she had the last word.

"How silly can you get?"

Faulty Coins Ghosts

Ghost pennies were inferior coins struck during the reign of George V—the obverse showed through on the reverse.

Medicollectors' Report

Numismatics Good Therapy In Ailments Readers Reveal

Overweight? Occupational fatigue? Heart trouble? Bad eyes? Take up numismatics!

Coin World readers report coin collecting has been of help to them in each of these physical difficulties.

Latest in the Medicollectors' Club communications comes from a lady reader whose name is withheld at her request. It will be furnished upon request to those fellow collectors seeking similar encouragement or boosting-of-the-morale.

Mrs. X writes Coin World:

"We are renewing our subscription to Coin World ... not only is your paper the best of its kind, it also has excellent therapeutic value! Yes, it's true!

"My husband has always been a coin collector, but I, frankly, couldn't see anything in it. But now I've been bitten by the bug, too.

"Now for the therapy ... my doctor advised me to adopt a quiet hobby to assist me in losing weight. In other words to take an interest in something other than food. So, we subscribed to your paper in the hope that I might become interested in coins ... and it worked beautifully.

"To date, April 10, 1961 (from November 1, 1960) I have lost over 60 pounds and my weight, now, is almost normal.

"This is the way the therapy works: In the evening I pore over coins and your coin paper and never think of "snacking". Honestly, the results are fantastic. My doctor is amazed. Just thought you would like to know—also, your lady readers."

Dollar And Thaler Club Program Held

The Kenosha, Wisc., Coin Club is scheduled to hold its May meeting on Thursday, May 4, at Maxwell's Camera Shop, 710 55th Street, starting at 8 p.m.

Informal discussion is expected to center around the club's annual banquet, which was slated for Saturday, April 22, at the Maplecrest Country Club.

At the regular April session, members heard Kenneth Bressett of Racine, Wisc., and Eugene Arneson, of Kenosha.

Bressett discussed the 1804 silver dollar on which he has been doing research for the past 10 years. Arneson spoke on the Maria Theresa Thaler of 1780 which is still being coined with the original date for circulation, mostly in Mediterranean countries.

It was being struck in Italy for a few years, but the dies were recently sent back to their country of origin, Austria.

Baraboo Club Will Start Second Year

The Baraboo, Wisc., Coin Club has slated its next meeting for Tuesday, May 9, at the Baraboo City Hall, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the start of its second year, the Baraboo club has reached the total of 41 members, coming from Reedsburg, Wisconsin Dells and the surrounding area as well as Baraboo.

Californian Prints Study On 60-D Cents

"Primary Die Varieties of the 1960-D Lincoln Cent" is the title of a 15-page copyright pamphlet-study, published by its author, Jack E. Sams, of Edwards, Calif.

According to Sams, the descriptive study is the result of careful examination of actual varieties and is intended to help only in identifying varieties. Cash values are not given, he said.

The worded descriptions, in lieu of illustrations, contain details which are essential to the identification of varieties, Sams pointed out.

Sixty individual varieties, including date sizes and mint mark variations, are classified and described. Combinations of two or more varieties on the same coin are not considered separate varieties for the purpose of the study.

The pamphlet costs 75 cents and may be ordered from Sam's, 7645 March Drive, Edwards, Calif.

Sams stated a second supplemental volume may be published if there is sufficient interest in the first publication.

Vending Coins...

used by collectors are sent to the Federal Reserve Bank where they are again counted, packaged this time and sent to member banks in the district.

How unpicked? Each vending machine holds about 12,200 pennies by itself. Routemen could not possibly spend the time going through that number of coins plus the other collections that are made that day. The sheer monumental task precludes any searching through the coins.

The task becomes compounded once in the warehouse as there are close to 100,000 coins that are collected daily. Secondly, the integrity of the people that you do business with. "Collecting coins is still a hobby and furnishing coins to collectors is secondary to our real business—vending machines," said Kantor.

Great rarities in coins are at a minimum although finds are common. Collectors have found practically every Lincoln cent in these bulk coins, 1909-SVDB, 1914-D and others. Restrikes have never been reported.

Since even the smallest child is aware of the fact that an Indian head cent is different from the coin that he normally handles he will hold on to this coin. As a result few Indian head coins are found, Kantor said. It should be pointed out that these cents in themselves have an extrinsic value and so can be used readily once the collector has gone through them.

"It is my opinion that unless a collector is prepared to pay someone for either holding on to the coins for years, along with their increase in value, or is ready to pay someone to go through unpicked coins, these coins are an excellent source for all collectors. The cost is nominal, the returns are rewarding," Kantor concluded.

Finds Best Method Says Speaker

Monday, May 8, has been set for the next meeting of the Jun-Ad Coin Club of Greensburg, Ind., to be held in the Decatur County Y.M.C.A. in Greensburg, starting at 7 p.m.

At the last meeting, Wilson Pollard, Indianapolis, talked to the members on how to find and identify the more valuable coins. "Of the two methods of collecting, finding them in circulation or buying them, the former is far more interesting," he said.

The auction was conducted by Ed Morrison, with Glenn Davis of St. Paul serving as auctioneer, assisted by Pete Smith, Paul Turner, Alan Armstrong and Rickie Acra.

New Coin Marking Device To Be Shown At Convention

A marking ink for coins invisible in ordinary light, but fluorescent under long-wave ultra-violet (3660 angstroms) is now on the market under the name of Glo-Fast.

First announcement of the unique protective device came from Robert N. Williams, 144 Old Clairton Road, Pittsburgh, 36, Pa., who invites dealer inquiries.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will introduce Glo-Fast at the Penn-Ohio convention May 12-14 in Pittsburgh.

Williams said it is his hope that the introduction and acceptance of this invisible marking ink will provide collectors and dealers with a good practical tool for "tagging" coins and numismatic accessories.

Almost a year has been spent in evaluating formulations and ultra-violet light sources, he said. The ink formulations which were finally decided upon are believed to be the best available.

"At last," said Williams, who was the victim of a giant coin robbery last year, "I have affixed my initials on the edges of all my rarities in international Morse code with Glo-Fast XBL-61-H.

"It is absolutely harmless, permanent and will not rub off, but most important it is invisible until placed under ultra-violet light.

"If coins are subsequently sold the markings can be removed easily without harm to the coin. Markings on absorbent surfaces, however, are permanent," Williams said.

The product is used and recognized by criminal laboratories, Williams said. One type is for marking absorbent surfaces such as paper and paper-base materials and the other is for plastics, metals, etc.

Prices for the formulations range from $1.75 to $2.50 with ultra-violet lights available from $12.95.

Pirate Money...Collector's Items

PIECES OF EIGHT

and Pirate "COB" Money

There is probably no more romantic coin in history than the original "piece of eight". It was the standard unit of money among the bold explorers who settled and conquered the American continent and our present "dollar" is a direct descendant of the Spanish milled dollar, valued at 8 reales and also known as the "pillar dollar" or "piece of eight".

The term "two bits", etc. came from the practice of splitting the coin into pieces to make change in a money scarce economy. The resolution of June 22, 1775, authorized the first issue of Continental paper money, and provided that the notes should be payable in Spanish milled dollars, or the value thereof in gold or silver. Genuine Pillar dollars are scarce and high in price, particularly if they are in mint condition.

Some time ago a coiner in South America made a limited number of reproductions of this romantic old coin. These reproductions are extraordinarily authentic and contain the same silver contents as the originals, which they duplicate in every way. Even some experts cannot tell the difference.

We purchased the stock of what is now a collector's item in itself. They are $5.05 each, and as the years pass they will be worth much more. Wonderful conversation pieces or decorative items and a must for coin collectors in this field. There will be no more available after this stock is exhausted.

Circular milled coin, mint condition, or "cobs", $5.05 each, postpaid no C.O.D. Order by number as indicated by photographs on left. These are approximately actual size.

Michigan Convention Biggest; Attendance Runs Into Thousands

More than 12,000 visitors and a state record of 480 delegate registrations marked the Michigan State Numismatic Society's Convention held in early April at Muskegon, Mich., and called by officials the "biggest and best ever held in the state."

The convention committee was "flabbergasted by the tremendous crowd," P. H. Frans, general chairman's report stated. There were more than 4,000 visitors on one afternoon, and the crowd stood six to eight deep in lines nearly 100 feet long waiting to get into the exhibit room and the bourse.

Registration was the largest of any coin convention held in Michigan in the past, including the State and Central States Conventions held in Detroit. The committee ran out of badges half way through, and had to use "make-shifts" to satisfy the crowd. People came in chartered buses from nearby states, and Association officials said they had never seen anything like it.

Value of the exhibits was more than $1 million, and a detail of Sheriff's deputies guarded them around the clock, as they did the bourse, occupied by dealers from New York to California.

Because he declined to enter competition, Irving Moskovitz of Detroit was given a special grand award for his famous gold and platinum exhibit, the award being designed by two members of the host Muskegon Coin Club, Harry Wenzel and Louis Kruithoff.

Winners in the various categories are listed as follows:

Best of Show, George D. Hatie, Grosse Pointe, Mich.

United States coins, first, Don L. Decker, East Cleveland; second, George D. Hatie, Grosse Pointe; third, Louis Sponholtz, Grand Rapids.

Ancient coins prior to 1500 A.D.: first, George D. Hatie, Grosse Pointe; second, John Northcott, Saginaw.

Miscellaneous, odd and curious: first, Ray Lietz, Santa Ana, Calif.; second, George D. Hatie, Grosse Pointe; third, Delon Gray, Saginaw, Mich.

Paper money (all kinds): first, Carl Roethke, Saginaw, Mich.; second, George D. Hatie, Grosse Pointe; third, William Marquant, Muskegon.

Junior exhibit (under 18 years of age): first, David Jackson; second, Daniel Cameron; third, Frank Anthony, all of Muskegon.

Due to the tremendous success of the Muskegon convention it is being rumored that Muskegon may be the host to the November convention of the Michigan State Numismatic Society in 1962.

Odd-Curious Money Exhibited

Walter West, Muskegon, Mich., coin dealer, exhibited his collection recently at the Michigan State Numismatic Society convention, held in Muskegon. Here he shows old Nevada territory silver bars, Indian wampum and African ring money (eight of these once bought a slave in Africa.)

MONEY!

I have about one thousand dollars
(Red Book value) worth of circulated Buffalo and Jefferson nickels and Mercury and Roosevelt dimes that I'd like to convert into circulated key (Less than 15 million minted) Indian and Lincoln cents. So for every one dollar in cash, or circulated key cents (Red Book value) received by me, I will send two dollars (Red Book value) worth of circulated nickels or dimes, my choice of year, date, mint, etc.

I can't guarantee that you will get the exact coins you need, but if you will enclose your want list, I'll try to include some of the coins on it when I send your nickels and dimes.

The early birds, of course, will have the best choice of coins, so hurry and send those dollars or key cents to:

THE LIBRARY OF COINS

By Any Standard, Still The Best!

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8 1/4" x 6 1/4", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins represents the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years, and was several years in development. Designed by numismatists, the Library of Coins is designed to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL

1861

1961

The Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., of New York and California has been appointed sole national distributor of this medal, which commemorates officially the Centennial of the Civil War.

It will be available in both bronze and silver about May 31, 1961.

The medal, which is 2½ inches in size, is being issued under authority of the Civil War Centennial Commission, which was created by an Act of Congress. The medal will be struck by the Medallic Art Company from designs and sculptor's models that have been approved by the U.S. Government Fine Arts Commission in Washington, D.C.

As can be seen from the above illustration, the obverse bears the portraits of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant and Gen. Robert E. Lee. The reverse shows the seal of the Civil War Centennial Commission, having as its main theme, a Union and Confederate soldier. The medal will be sold in its own specially made container and will come with a printed, informative leaflet.

In addition to the bronze medal, there will be an issue of pure silver medals, which will be limited to 25,000 serially numbered pieces. The purity of the silver will be greater than .999 fineness.

PRICES OF THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL MEDAL

The official prices of the Civil War Centennial Medal follow:

THE BRONZE CENTENNIAL MEDAL....'4.00

THE PURE SILVER CENTENNIAL MEDAL....'30.00

Please note: Because of the limited issue, the silver medals are offered subject to being sold out. Those wishing silver medals should place their order now. Earlier this year many thousands were disappointed when their orders for silver Inaugural medals were placed too late. Because of the overwhelming national interest in the Civil War, it is expected that the silver medals will be quickly sold out.

The bronze and silver medals will be available about May 31, 1961 at your local coin and stamp dealer, department store coin counters, hobby shops etc., or you may write to either our New York or California office. Established dealers wishing to carry this medal for resale should write to us at once for our terms.
